Nestled in the heart of Rancho Mirage, at the base of the San Jacinto Mountain Range in the sun-drenched Coachella Valley, Rancho Las Palmas Resort & Spa invites you to indulge in a wide array of recreational activities, then retreat to the comfort of their classic accommodations. Fresh on the heels of a $35 million makeover, this California desert classic has been completely re-imagined for the 21st century traveler. This is Palm Springs at its best. This is the new desert cool.

Plunge into the fun of Splashtopia, the resort's exciting new water feature with 100 foot waterslides, lazy river, sandy beach and more. Savor the California harvest while soaking up the sophisticated desert ambiance of bluEmber, the resort's new signature dining experience. Surrender to world-class indulgence at Spa Las Palmas, or enjoy a round of classic desert golf.

Rancho Las Palmas' greatest attribute though is their people. From the moment you arrive, your every need is attended to with effortless skill and genuine hospitality. It's all part of their commitment to make every aspect of your stay memorable and rewarding.

RENTAL CARS AND PARKING ON PROPERTY

As with other IADC meeting locations, you may find that having a rental car, which allows accessibility to the great shopping, restaurants, and sightseeing off-property, a must-have. Please be sure to book a rental car soon. The Palm Springs Airport (PSP) is located 11 miles from the resort, the Ontario Airport (ONT) is located 80 miles from the resort, the Orange County-John Wayne Airport (SNA) is located 110 miles from the resort, and the Los Angeles International Airport (LAX) is located 135 miles from the resort. All airports are serviced by major rental car companies.

Please note that complimentary valet and self parking will be extended to all registered attendees.

SPA

The Spa Las Palmas knows how to help you get a fresh outlook. From the new color palate to a beautifully refurbished pool area, the Spa Las Palmas at the Rancho Las Palmas Resort & Spa experienced a complete face-lift that has transformed it into a 20,000 square-foot desert oasis. Soothing hues of blues and greens are used throughout the space that also boasts new fixtures and finishes, upgraded locker amenities and state-of-the-art spa equipment. Just outside, the tranquil spa courtyard offers a heated sanctuary pool, soothing water features and stunning mountain views. In addition to the newly made-over space, the spa offers a Spa Experience Coordinator whose sole responsibility is to make sure guests are completely content in their individual spa journeys. For spa reservations, please call 760.836.3106.

RESTAURANTS

Guests will find a wealth of culinary adventures within each of the Palm Springs restaurants at Rancho Las Palmas Resort & Spa. Whether it's a stylish dinner in the alluring new bluEmber Restaurant, a casual poolside lunch, Starbucks coffee in the Palms Internet Cafe, or a classic cocktail in our sophisticated new lounge, there's a restaurant for every mood.

bluEmber - Dine al fresco on the Plaza, where the lively ambience is accentuated by blazing blue-fire pits and enjoy an inspired menu from local farms and top vineyards.

R Bar - If upholstered leather chairs, sports on the flat-screens, and creative cocktails and cuisine are your bag, then there's no other place to be.

Splash Grill - Mix poolside ambience with golf course views, add a dash of grille fare and a splash of your favorite cocktail.

Palms Cafe - Sip your favorite Starbucks brew, sink into a comfy chair with a newspaper or check your e-mail online at one of the computer stations.

River Dining - Just across the street from the resort, this entertainment hub has something for every guest with a park-like waterfront, an entertainment amphitheater, and fountains and cascading waterfalls.

For a list of restaurant suggestions, please go to IADC's Midyear Meeting homepage on IADC's Web site – www.iadclaw.org or contact the resort's concierge at 866.423.1195.
