In the matter of religion,
people eagerly fasten their eyes on the difference between their own creed and yours; whilst the charm of the study is in finding the agreements and identities in all the religions of humanity.

— Ralph Waldo Emerson (1803-1882), “The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Inter-Religious Dialogue,”

“[T]he only way in which a human being can make some approach to knowing the whole of a subject, is by hearing what can be said about it by persons of every variety of opinion, and studying all modes in which it can be looked at by every character of mind. No wise man ever acquired his wisdom in any mode but this; nor is it in the nature of human intellect to become wise in any other manner.” John Stuart Mill (1806-1873), On Liberty, <http://www.econlib.org/library/Mill/mlLbty2.html>
