

Stuart Miller

Mr. Miller has been involved in an active trial practice for 29 years. He has been recognized by numerous organizations and companies for his accomplishments in the courtroom. His trial practice involves a broad spectrum of complex commercial litigation, class action litigation, products Liability and “Bet the Company” litigation. He handles a wide range of professional liability matters, including those involving nursing homes and medical malpractice. Mr. Miller has an active practice in the area of bad faith defense and insurance claim litigation.