Re: IADC Trial Academy Details

Congratulations on your acceptance in the 2022 IADC Trial Academy. The Academy will commence the morning of Saturday, July 30 and will conclude the afternoon of Friday, August 5. The Academy will be held at Stanford University at Palo Alto, California. You will find some general information below that will assist you in making your travel arrangements and planning for the Trial Academy.

PROGRAM MATERIALS

Your hypothetical case materials and demonstration assignments can be found at this link: <https://www.iadclaw.org/2022-trial-academy-materials/> It is imperative that you study these materials in advance of the Academy. You should come to the Academy prepared to perform your assigned demonstrations. Please note that your specific student number is important to your demonstration assignments. (See "Trial Academy Faculty and Student Groups" document for student # and "Student Assignments 2022" document on web page referenced above.)

STANFORD CURRENT COVID-19 PROTOCOL

Stanford requires program sponsors to verify proof of full vaccination (booster not required). Additionally, we recommend that you have proof of vaccination on your phone. Thank you for presenting your proof of vaccination to us previously. All participants including members of the production team are required to be vaccinated. Per Stanford's requirements, at check-in you will need to present proof of a negative COVID-19 antigen or PCR test-performed at a pharmacy or verifiable testing location (not self-administered). This test needs to be administered within 24 hours of arrival. If you do not have proof of a negative COVID-19 test result (electronic or hardcopy results/cannot be a photo of results) within 24 hours of arrival, please bring a rapid antigen test kit to test yourself on arrival at the Check-In desk in the presence of Stanford and/or IADC staff. If you test positive, you will need to quarantine for 5 days in your room or at another safe location. If at any time you feel ill with symptoms of Covid-19, you must report this to IADC staff who will give you a rapid antigen test to test yourself. It is advised to test yourself before leaving home so that it is less likely that you arrive on campus and then test positive. Also per Stanford directive, you must also wear a mask while in the classroom unless you are actively speaking in which case you may remove it. You do not need to wear a mask at other indoor locations on campus or outdoors. Please come prepared with your own supply of masks.

If you need to cancel your registration due to COVID in advance of the meeting, the standard IADC cancellation policy applies with a future meeting credit issued for the full registration fees and room and board minus a $150 cancellation fee for use at an IADC meeting within the next year.

If you test positive for COVID onsite, you will need to quarantine for 5 days and can do so in your room and can utilize the board package for breakfast and lunch, which will be brought to you, until you can move to a safe alternative location. If you choose to leave campus and the program, you will be refunded for any sleeping room nights that you don't use (at a rate of $184.85 per night) and will receive a prorated future meeting credit from the IADC for the days you do not attend the program and utilize the board package. (If you arrive onsite but do not attend any part of the program, you will receive a credit for the full meeting registration fee.) The credit will be good for a year and can be used on any IADC meeting. If you firm wishes to use it toward an IADC member's attendance at another meeting, that is acceptable.

ARRIVAL

Students should arrive the afternoon or evening of Friday, July 29 or the morning of Saturday, July 30. The Academy program begins at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, July 30, with breakfast being served from 6:30 a.m. until 8:00 a.m. that morning. The program concludes on Friday, August 5 by 12:00 noon. If you are arriving after 8:00 p.m. on Friday or before 8:00 a.m. on Saturday, please notify Donna Villa at dvilla@iadclaw.org as soon as possible for important after-hours information. (See also below under "Housing")

TRANSPORTATION TO STANFORD

Because the Trial Academy takes place on campus, some registrants find it unnecessary to rent cars; however, car rental is available at the airport and on campus. Enterprise Rent-A-Car has a branch at Stanford. You can contact them directly by phone at (650) 833-8060 or on-line at www.enterprise.com. Stanford has one of the largest university Zipcar programs in the nation with twenty-four Zipcar locations at Stanford. Most Zipcars at Stanford are fuel-efficient hybrid vehicles. Rates start at $11.00 per hour and include gas and insurance. Learn more at <https://transportation.stanford.edu/zipcar-stanford>.

If you have a car, you will be required to buy a parking pass. These passes can be purchased when you arrive at the Munger Conference Front Desk and cost per day is $5.45. Monthly parking is $35.00. All permits are non-refundable. To purchase our event rate for parking on-line <https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1rQYvYIPbTTC6e-YBXHzdvHuxdRUIRQ9MQnG8saskuqk/edit#gid=197579322> There are 2 worksheets (one for monthly and one for daily permits) prices are noted on each worksheet and the highlighted banner indicates the lot where these permits can be used. It is a view only file so the banner information and pricing cannot be changed, click on the link and it will take you to the page to record your vehicle information and eventually credit card information. Left side of the page (One you click on the daily or monthly link) there is a map that can assist you with where to find parking lots.

Parking will be available in an underground garage adjacent (“Wilbur Field Garage,” 560 Wilbur Way, Stanford) to the residence center where you will be staying. (See map on web page). It is very important to park only in the spaces designated for the type of parking pass you purchase or you will be ticketed, so please review that information when you purchase your pass. Passes are valid in the following permit areas as labeled on the pass: EA, ES, SO, SJ, and WE. You cannot park in areas designated for other letter combinations or in visitor pay parking spots or you will be ticketed a minimum of $41 for a permit violation to $753 for illegally parking in a disabled space by the Santa Clara County Sherriff.

If you plan to fly into San Francisco, the University recommends using the Super Shuttle, a shared van that operates 24 hours a day: www.supershuttle.com or 800.258.3826, for transfers to and from the airport. When booking with Super Shuttle online, the Stanford Landmark for drop-off is Munger Graduate Residence-Building 4.

If traveling by taxi, Uber, or Lyft, please tell your driver that your destination is the Munger Graduate Housing on the Stanford University Campus located near the intersection of Campus Drive and Mayfield. An exact address to use when directing your driver is 554 Salvatierra Walk.

For further information on public transportation options and driving directions to campus, please visit: <https://transportation.stanford.edu/transit>

WEATHER

The weather in Palo Alto is forecasted for temperatures in the 80s during the day and mid 50s during the night. Please pack your attire accordingly for these varying temperatures. All indoor areas used by the conference are air-conditioned facilities.

ATTIRE

The dress code varies during the day. Generally before lunch during the faculty demonstrations, business casual clothing is appropriate. However, after lunch during the student demonstrations, you should plan to wear courtroom attire. Bring a comfortable change of shoes for walking between buildings on campus as well as a bag to carry your belongings and conference materials. Business or smart casual attire is appropriate for the social functions in the evening.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Trial Academy covers each segment of a trial, and you will perform the role of counsel in each aspect of a trial. The Academy emphasizes the “learning by doing” approach. The schedule is devised so that you will watch faculty demonstrations most mornings, and you will present an opening statement, direct and cross examination of lay witnesses, direct and cross examination of medical and economic expert witnesses, and closing arguments during the afternoon sessions. Please review the hypothetical problems used in the exercises and your assignments. You should come to the Academy prepared to perform your assigned demonstrations. Please note that your specific student number is important to your demonstration assignments. (See “Trial Academy Faculty and Student Groups” document for student # and “Student Assignments 2022” document on web page referenced above for specific assignments.) Regardless of assignment, you should be familiar with all of the hypothetical cases and be prepared to work in various roles within each of the student cases when you arrive at Stanford. During the exercises, you may want to use demonstrative aids. Each classroom is equipped with a computer and projection capabilities. If you use PowerPoint, please plan to bring your presentation on a flash drive to transfer your presentation to the classroom’s computer. Each room will also have an easel, flip chart, whiteboard, and remote slide advancer/laser pointer. Please bring any adapters you might need if you are hooking up a personal Notebook or Mac laptop for projection. Please note that the classrooms do not have an ELMO for document projection. It is entirely your responsibility to prepare in advance any demonstrative aids you would like to use. None will be prepared for you.
