President's Message

"Nothing endures but change" - Heraclitus

The IADC is on the move! Your board and committee leaders are continuing to work hard to maximize the value of your membership. We are who we are because of you, and your success and satisfaction are critical to our mission.

In this issue of the IADC Docket, we highlight many of our recent activities and connections.

We also provide a well-deserved spotlight on some of our members who are achieving legendary status in our profession. I guarantee that the time you spend catching up on your IADC news will be time well spent.

As you know, our theme this year is One World. One Mission. One IADC. Our goal has been simple: to continue building the IADC tradition of professionalism, camaraderie, and networking around the world! Our extremely successful Midyear Meeting in Santa Barbara fulfilled that mission.

With a record number of attendees and First Timers, the 2019 Midyear Meeting was both very productive and memorable. With a group of members, spouses, and significant others that truly represented the best of who we are, this meeting truly showed the diversity, talent, and treasure that is the IADC. Information on Upcoming Elections

The Election Process

Elections of new Board Members and Officers will take place at the Annual Meeting in July. Per our bylaws, any Member in good standing is eligible for nomination and election to any elective office in the IADC. At the Annual Meeting Closing Session, a Nominating Committee appointed by the President will report to the Association with its nominations to fill the following positions: President-Elect, Vice President of Corporate, Secretary-Treasurer Elect, and three new Board members. Additional nominations for these offices may be made from the floor at that time provided that the intention to make such a nomination, identifying the intended candidate(s), shall have been given to the Secretary no later than the Opening Session of the Annual Meeting. Information on how to submit comments to the Nominating Committee will be published in the next IADC Docket. You can either provide comments onsite at the Annual Meeting or in writing prior to the meeting. The IADC will publish biographies of any member who wishes to be considered for the office of President-Elect. Please inform President Craig Thompson (cathompson@venable.com or 1.410.244.7605) no later than May 13, 2019 if you wish to be considered for this position and want your biography published in June with the election materials.

Prohibitions on Campaigning

The IADC's policy is to prohibit public or private campaigning for a position on the Board of Directors or as an Officer. Members should not campaign on behalf of anyone whom they are supporting for a position on the Board or as an Officer.

Participate in the Process

We encourage all members to participate in the process. When providing comments to the Nominating Committee, you can comment on one open position or all open positions. If you don't have a particular member to endorse for the Board but want to offer input on the direction our leadership can go, you can do that as well.

2019 Annual Meeting - Asheville, Here We Come!

We are preparing for a very special 2019 Annual Meeting on July 7 to 12 at The Omni Grove Park Inn in Asheville, North Carolina. We know you will love it and we invite you to explore and experience the vibrant downtown - restaurants, coffeehouses, microbreweries, museums, galleries, bookstores, antique shops, and boutiques.

Annual Meeting CLE Program Chair Alba Romano and her Committee have developed a line-up of programs that highlight hot topics and follow up on significant and recent developments which are important to our profession. Programs will include how to celebrate diversity without increasing division; what issues face the international insurance market; the importance of managing attention despite constant daily distractions; and real experiences with pro bono issues.

With tours that get you exploring the city to fun evening social events, this will be a great meeting to bring your family, spouse, or guests.

LCJ Update

LAWYERS FOR CIVIL JUSTICE

LCJ Amicus Program

Fighting for Procedural Fairness

LCJ is the preeminent corporate and defense expert on the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP). Since its founding in 1987, LCJ has advocated for rule reforms aimed at helping the FRCP achieve Rule 1's objective of securing "the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action and proceeding." LCJ's amicus program is integral to our mission because judicial interpretations can dramatically change a rule's effectiveness. As amicus curiae, LCJ employs its deep experience and unique perspective to help ensure sensible interpretations of civil rules. The below cases are representative of LCJ's amicus program.

RECENT BRIEFS

LCJ CONVINCES JUDGE NOT TO TAKE A BITE OUT OF APPLE

LCJ's amicus brief in the In Re Qualcomm Antitrust Litigation successfully opposed capricious discovery sanctions ordered against a non-party litigant, Apple, for not handing over documents according to the terms of a discovery order. Sanctions amounted to $25,000 each day Apple failed to produce the documents. Referring to LCJ's amicus brief in her ruling, Judge Koh of the Northern District of California set aside the sanctions order that contravened the basic principles that discovery sanctions be imposed sparingly—generally only where deliberate misconduct caused prejudice to other litigants—and be narrowly tailored to remedy the prejudice.

LCJ ARGUES FOR PROPORTIONAL DISCOVERY IN 8TH CIRCUIT

LCJ helped stop two very burdensome discovery orders on appeal in LaBrier v. State Farm Insurance by pointing out that those orders were neither proportional to the needs of the case nor appropriate prior to class certification. A special master had ordered State Farm to pull broad potential individual class member information from several different data sources and to give it to plaintiffs even though State Farm said it could not be done. On September 25, 2017, the 8th Circuit held it was inappropriate to certify this class of plaintiffs and also said the discovery was "premature" and the issue moot.

LCJ OPPOSES CY PRESAWARDS THAT FAIL TO COMPORT WITH RULE 23 BY PROVIDING NO RELIEF TO CLASS MEMBERS

LCJ's amicus brief in the U.S. Supreme Court case Frank v. Gao reflects LCJ's experience as an active participant in the development of potential amendments to Rule 23, which concerns class actions. LCJ's advocacy in the rulemaking process prompted rethinking of a proposal that would have enshrined the use of cy pres awards in the FRCP. Now, as amicus curiae, LCJ is urging the Supreme Court to hold that a cy pres award that provides no direct relief to class members fails to comport with Rule 23's requirement that a settlement binding class members must be "fair, reasonable, and adequate."

WHAT CAN THE LCJ AMICUS PROGRAM DO FOR YOU

If you are involved in a case that raises an important question of interpretation about the FRCP, LCJ may be a powerful ally to your cause. LCJ is always looking for opportunities to employ our unique expertise as a friend of the court to help ensure that judges achieve procedural fairness for the parties. If you are aware of a case where LCJ's involvement could make a difference, please contact LCJ Executive Director Andrea Looney.

IADC FOUNDATION COOKBOOK MYTHBUSTERS

The IADC Foundation is still gathering recipes for a cookbook to raise funds for the Foundation and celebrate the IADC's Centennial in 2020. Here are the Top Four Myths that may be holding you up from sending in a recipe:

- 1) Your recipe may be rejected. NO recipe will be rejected. We do have a testing committee, but their purpose is to determine if there are any ambiguities in the instructions provided.
- 2) You can't provide a recipe without pictures or a story. Although we'd love to have pictures and a story, don't let that stop you. We are getting many recipes without them.
- 3) You can only submit one recipe. We have NO limit on the number of recipes from any person or family.
- 4) We only want one recipe from each state, province, or country. We are delighted to get multiple recipes from every location.

We need recipes from the following countries: Argentina, British Virgin Islands, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Czech Republic, Germany, Greece, Hungary, India, Indonesia, Ireland, Israel, Kenya, Malaysia, Mauritius, Netherlands, Nigeria, Norway, Peru, Philippines, Puerto Rico, Saudi Arabia, Singapore, South Africa, Spain, Ukraine, United Arab Emirates

We still need recipes from the following states: Alaska, Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Dakota, Utah, Vermont, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming

To check out instructions and guidelines on how to submit recipes, visit the Centennial Fundraiser Cookbook page on the IADC Foundation website.
