

Alexandra Simotta

IADC International Corporate Counsel College Director, 2022

PAYONE GmbH

Vienna, Austria

alexandra.simotta@worldline.com

Alexandra Simotta is a mediator and lawyer trained in New York and Austria. She started her career in two top tier Austrian law firms, CMS and Cerha Hempel, as a litigator and arbitration counsel. Currently, she holds the position of Head of Legal Austria and Senior Vice President at PAYONE, Austrian Branch, a European payment services provider and daughter company of Worldline Group. She advises the company in a variety of legal areas, especially in FinTech, data protection, antitrust law, civil and civil procedural law, banking regulatory law, commercial law, contract law, and corporate law. In her changing roles she has led PAYONE, SIX Group, Worldline, and SIX Payment Services through several (international) mergers and acquisitions and has enabled the introduction and placement of new technologies on the payments market.

Personally, she loves hiking, yoga, and spending time with loved ones, including her cat Moses and dog Timmy.

Sylvie Gallage-Alwis

IADC International Corporate Counsel College Director, 2023

Signature Litigation AARPI

Paris, France

sylvie.gallage-alwis@signaturelitigation.com

After 10 years practicing in a major international law firm, Sylvie became one of the founding partners of the Paris office of Signature Litigation and heads its product liability, toxic tort, and class action practice.

She is specialised in all cutting-edge complex disputes linked to products, namely product liability, product safety, toxic tort, mass litigation/class action, regulatory compliance, and environment for a variety of globally recognised manufacturers from industries such as automotive, electronic products, cosmetics, new technologies, steel, energy, food, toys, etc. Sylvie is further known in the French market as a leading toxic tort/mass litigation lawyer. She has been involved in most pro-company case law rendered in asbestos-related cases.

Sylvie is both an Avocat à la Cour in France and a Solicitor in England and Wales. She is described by Who's Who Legal as a "dynamic and determined litigator" who is "a firm favourite among clients" as "she always goes the extra mile to support her clients, and is proactive in seeking commercial solutions to disputes" and is "analytical, intelligent and responsive." Sylvie is ranked as Thought Leader by Who's Who Legal: Product Liability Defence 2022, which notes she is "a star in the international world" and "well-connected expert." She is one of the three Leading Individuals for France listed by The Legal 500 in Product Liability. She has also been awarded the "Best in Product Liability" award at the 2019 LMG Euromoney Europe Women in Business Law Awards and the "Lexology Client Choice" award in 2021.

Mark Beebe

IADC President, 2022-2023

Adams and Reese LLP

New Orleans, LA USA

mark.beebe@arlaw.com

Mark is a partner at Adams and Reese LLP in New Orleans where he has practiced for 33 years in the area of business litigation, including class actions, antitrust, securities, D&O and E&O liability, contract disputes, and education law. He represents and advises multi-national companies, financial institutions, insurance companies, and privately-held businesses. Since 2007, Mark has been recognized for his work in both commercial litigation and antitrust by Best Lawyers in America and Louisiana Super Lawyers. He is also recognized by Chambers in the area of General Commercial Litigation. Mark has served his firm in various roles including on its Executive Committee, Strategic Planning Committee, as Litigation Practice Group Leader, Recruiting Chair, Business Litigation Team Leader, Emerging Practice Areas Liaison, and is an originating member of its Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee. For his contributions in pro bono, his firm has recognized Mark as a CA&RE Lawyer of the Year.

Mark has been married to his wife, Anne, for 27 years, and they have two sons, Mark Jr. (25) and Chris (23).

Mark has been a member of the IADC since 2002, and is the IADC's current President. From 2018 to 2020, Mark served on the IADC Board after a six-year tenure on the IADC Foundation Board, holding the positions of Vice President and Secretary-Treasurer. Mark and Anne are IADC Foundation Life Fellows. In 2016, Mark and Anne served as Convention Chairs. Mark has also acted as Open Forum Chair, the Annual Meeting CLE Steering Committee Chair, and served on the Trial Academy, the Nominating Committee, the Membership Committee, and the Centennial Committee.

Mark dedicates time to helping various charitable and educational organizations having served as President of the Jesuit High School Parents Board, President of the Jesuit High School Athletic Board, Chair of the Christian Brothers School Capital Campaign, and President of the Stuart Hall Parents Club. He is a graduate of the Metropolitan Action Committee's Leadership Forum and the New Orleans Regional Leadership Institute. He has been elected to the Power Generation by New Orleans CityBusiness and received CityBusiness' Leadership in Law award.

Cecilia Alvarez

Meta

Madrid, Spain

ceciliaalvarez@meta.com

Cecilia Alvarez Rigaudias is the EMEA Privacy Policy Director at Facebook since March 2019. From 2015 to 2019, she served as European Privacy Officer Lead of Pfizer, Vice-Chair of the EFPIA Data Protection Group, and Chairwoman of IPPC-Europe. For an interim period, she was also the Legal Lead of the Spanish Pfizer subsidiaries. She formerly worked 18 years in a reputed Spanish law firm, leading the data protection, IT, and ecommerce areas of practice as well as the LATAM Data Protection Working Group. Cecilia was the Chairwoman of APEP (Spanish Privacy Professional Association) until June and is currently in charge of its international affairs. She is also the Spanish member of CEDPO (Confederation of European Data Protection Organisations) and member of the Leadership Council of The Sedona Conference (W-6). She is a member of the Spanish Royal Academy of Jurisprudence and Legislation in the section of the Law on Technologies of the Information and the Knowledge as well as Arbitrator of the European Association of Arbitration (ITC Section). She formed part of the Volunteer Group of Privacy Experts of the OECD (Working Party on information Security and Privacy; WPISP) in charge of the 2013 review of the OECD guidelines governing the protection of privacy and transborder data flows of personal data. She formerly participated in the Group of Experts selected by the Spanish DPA to prepare the Madrid Resolution on International Privacy Standards. Cecilia has written numerous publications on data protection and regularly lectures on data protection, IT, and ecommerce.

R. Bruce Barze, Jr.

Barze Taylor Noles Lowther LLC

Birmingham, AL USA

Bruce Barze has a national litigation practice and over the last 30 years has acquired substantial experience in business, insurance, and environmental litigation, as well as the defense of high-stakes personal injury and wrongful death cases. He has tried lawsuits to verdict in five states and litigated matters in 20 states, territories, and Canada. Several clients call on him regularly for insurance coverage matters, ranging from coverage opinions to all types of coverage litigation. Bruce serves as state or regional trial counsel for a number of companies, including a global leader of power/automation technologies, syndicates in the London insurance market, European manufacturers, and market leaders that design and sell agricultural vehicles and implements, construction equipment, and industrial machinery.

He graduated summa cum laude from The University of Alabama School of Law in 1992, where he served on The Alabama Law Review, was inducted into the Order of the Coif, and was a M. Leigh Harrison Scholar and a Hugo Black Scholar. He graduated in 1987 from Vanderbilt University with a B.A. degree in Political Science. Bruce has been recognized by clients and peers in numerous publications, including Chambers USA (General Commercial Litigation) and The Best Lawyers in America (Bet-the-Company Litigation, Commercial Litigation, Insurance Law, Environmental Litigation, Product Liability Litigation-Defendants). He was designated as The Best Lawyers 2019 “Lawyer of the Year” for Insurance Law and the 2020 “Lawyer of the Year” for Product Liability Litigation-Defendants in Birmingham. Bruce is married and the proud father of two children.

Dominique Brown-Berset

Brown & Page SA

Geneva, Switzerland

dbrown-berset@brownandpage.com

Dominique Brown-Berset practises mainly in the field of international dispute resolution (in particular international arbitration, mediation, and litigation), contracts and international business transactions, as well as in matters involving international private and public law issues. She holds law degrees from Lausanne University Law School, Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne, and Harvard Law School. She was called to the Bar in 1982. She has acted as counsel, co-counsel, and arbitrator (also as sole arbitrator and president of arbitral tribunals) in more than 250 international cases around the world, including in cases involving states and international organisations at both private and governmental levels. She has a particular interest and experience in early settlement tools related to arbitration.

She is on the panel of arbitrators of several arbitral institutions, in particular HKIAC, JCAA, SIAC, AIAC (previously KLRCA), and CAS. She is a member of the Management Board and the Supervisory Council of the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law (appointed by the Federal Government), member of the editorial board of several arbitration reviews and publications, such as, e.g., The Journal of International Arbitration, and GAR.

Dominique was a member of the LCIA Court of Arbitration until May 2020, former co-chair of the arbitration committee of the International Bar Association, past President of ArbitralWomen, former international vice-president of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (London), and of the Executive Committee of the “Société Suisse des Juristes.”

Jiří Černý

Peterka & Partners

Prague, Hlavní mesto Praha Czech Republic

Jiří Černý focuses mainly on litigation and arbitration. He regularly represents market leaders.

He has been with the firm since the establishment of the firm and became a Partner in 2001. Currently, he is the Leader of the Litigation and Insolvency practice at PETERKA & PARTNERS.

In his litigation and arbitration practice, he has represented clients operating in a wide range of sectors, such as banking, construction, machinery, automotive, professional services, and luxury and retail. He has been repeatedly listed as a recommended lawyer in the litigation area by Chambers Europe. He was also acknowledged by the World Bank for his long-term co-operation on the Doing Business project.

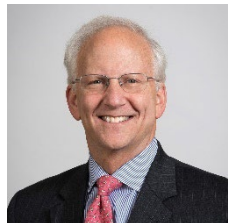

Robert M. Craig

Berkeley Research Group, LLC

Houston, TX USA

bcraig@thinkbrg.com

For more than twelve years, Bob Craig has guided his clients in the identification, selection, and retention of consulting and testifying experts for complex litigation. To this task he brings nearly 50 years of legal experience, primarily as an in-house counsel. His legal background also includes time spent on active military duty and in private practice, having served as an Air Force JAG officer and US Air Force Academy professor, a law firm partner, and for nearly 30 years in-house for four major corporations, primarily in the position of chief litigation officer. Mr. Craig's experience managing complex litigation placed him in the middle of some of the most important cases affecting his industries. Bob received a B.A. in Journalism from Texas Christian University and his J.D. at the University of Virginia.

Christopher Scott D'Angelo

Montgomery McCracken Walker & Rhoads, LLP

Philadelphia, PA & NY USA

cdangelo@mmwr.com

Christopher Scott D'Angelo is a partner in Montgomery McCracken's Litigation Department and Chair of Montgomery McCracken's Product Liability, Toxic Torts and Catastrophic Events Practice Group and of the Firm's International Business Practice Group. His practice emphasizes litigation and preventive counseling in the fields of business and business torts, intellectual property, class actions, products liability and construction, including in his role as national counsel for several major U.S. clients and his representation of foreign concerns in the United States and United States concerns abroad, as well as litigation and other matters in the probate courts. Christopher serves as national counsel for several multinational and domestic companies regarding business and products liability litigation and regional counsel for a multinational insurance company for products liability and other litigation. His representative clients range from Fortune 50 companies to nascent or well-established privately held companies, based in the United States and abroad. The industries in which Christopher has experience range from medical devices and pharmaceuticals to chemicals, manufacturing and industrial equipment, automotive and other vehicles, railroad equipment, computers, construction (builders, architects, and manufacturers of tools, machinery, building systems, and building materials), shipbuilding, transportation, robotics and other electronics, amusements and sporting goods, children's products, food and food supplements, and consumer and household products. Christopher is working with the EU Commission and members of the European Parliament with regard to proposals for collective redress in Europe, and has been involved in the reform of Brussels I.

Marc C. Dautlich

*Bristows LLP
London, England*

Marc Dautlich is a partner at Bristows LLP, a full-service UK law firm focusing on the technology and life sciences sectors. He is a technology specialist with more than 25 years of experience gained in private practice, as well as in-house at Equifax and on secondments at Microsoft, consistently ranked in the legal directories as a Leading Individual in Data Protection, Privacy and Cybersecurity, and a Who's Who Legal Global Leader.

Marc advises clients on cyber security incidents, and regulatory investigations and disputes involving data privacy, misuse of private information and breaches of confidentiality, and has experience of devising voluntary redress schemes for individuals affected by such misuse or breaches. More broadly, Marc advises on the full range of data privacy and digital matters, helping clients to evaluate and manage data privacy and cyber risk in international compliance programs, in technology projects involving the development of machine learning/artificial intelligence, Internet of Things, cloud applications, in life sciences and medical device projects covering healthcare apps, remote diagnostics, clinical trials and investigations, and genomic research, and in the financial services sector across the lifecycle of product development and FinTech applications.

Marc is qualified in England, registered as an EU Lawyer at the Brussels Bar, and admitted as a solicitor in the Republic of Ireland (non-practising) and advises on both UK and EU law.

Eleonor DuhsBates WellsLondon, England*e.duhs@bateswells.co.uk

Eleonor Duhs is a Partner and the Head of Data Privacy at Bates Wells LLP in London. Prior to working in private practice she was a UK government lawyer. She was the UK's lead lawyer in negotiations on the GDPR in Brussels. She is an expert on the UK's post-Brexit legal landscape, having worked in the Department for Exiting the European Union on the domestic legislation to implement Brexit, as well as the EU-UK Withdrawal Agreement and the framework for the future EU-UK relationship. She has co-authored a well-received book on Brexit: Retained EU law: a Practical Guide, published by the Law Society. She has given expert evidence in the UK Parliament on data protection and the UK's post-Brexit legal landscape and provided briefing to Peers and MPs on the new Data Protection and Digital Information Bill.

Alexander EndlPressl Endl Heinrich Bamberger Rechtsanwälte GmbVienna, Austria*a.endl@pehb.at Alexander Endl is a recognised expert in the area of commercial litigation and arbitration. As a partner and head of the Vienna-based dispute resolution team of Pressl Endl Heinrich Bamberger Attorney at Law ("PEHB"), Alexander has considerable experience counseling foreign and domestic companies across a variety of industries in dispute proceedings before Austrian courts and arbitral proceedings before the Vienna International Arbitral Centre ("VIAC"). He has an in-depth understanding particularly of the automotive industry, various wholesaler and retailer businesses, as well as the insurance sector, also in the context of collective redress mechanisms. Alexander joined PEHB in 2016. Previously, he worked for a renowned major law firm in Vienna. Alexander studied law at the University of Vienna and at the University of California, Los Angeles.

2022 INTERNATIONAL CORPORATE COUNSEL COLLEGE SPEAKERS

Robert Fairless

Amgen Switzerland

Robert Fairless is currently the Legal Director responsible for much of Amgen's emerging market business, and global controls often associated with operating in these regions, including anti-bribery and corruption, trade compliance, and investigations. He has advised on novel and cutting-edge scientific developments, from the introduction of new medicines and genetically-modified crops to the launch of spacecraft to Mars. Prior to Amgen, Robert led Law and Compliance teams at Monsanto in EMEA and Asia, as well as at Merck and Airbus' aerospace division.

Therese Frank

*Thorstensen Frank - Rechtsanwalt und Rechtsanwältin in Kooperation
Vienna, Austria
kanzlei@ra-theresefrank.at*

Therese Frank is an attorney based in Vienna. Since 2018, Therese is partner in the law firm Thorstensen Frank - Rechtsanwalt und Rechtsanwältin in Kooperation. Prior to that, she worked for ten years in a large law firm. In addition, she advocates for women in the legal profession, is a little yogi, and very active on social media.

Silvia Kim

*Philip Morris Products S.A.
Lausanne, Switzerland
silvia.kim@pmi.com*

Silvia Kim is Vice President & Associate General Counsel for Philip Morris International based in Lausanne, Switzerland. She is currently responsible for the Eastern European region, including Russia and Ukraine. Prior to her current role, Silvia was Assistant General Counsel in PMI's litigation group based in New York and in Lausanne where she managed a variety of high stakes litigation, including class actions and regulatory litigation in Eastern Europe, Latin America, Asia, and Europe.

Silvia joined PMI in 2013 from Shook Hardy & Bacon LLP in the U.S., where she served as PMI's outside counsel in Latin America. Silvia is licensed in Costa Rica and in Missouri.

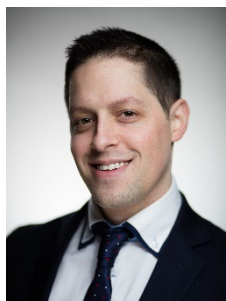

Thomas Kroupa

CMS and Austria + SEE

Vienna, Austria

thomas.kroupa@cmsrrh.com

Thomas is the Head of IT at CMS Reich-Rohrwig Hainz. He heads the operation and strategic development of IT systems for Austria and CEE with a focus on IT security and cyber resilience and management of digitization projects.

Timothy J. LaTulippe

iDiscovery Solutions (iDS)

London, England

tlatulippe@idsinc.com

Tim LaTulippe is a London-based data forensic expert and a Director with iDiscovery Solutions' European arm. He has assisted in complex investigations in both the public and private sectors in the U.S. and Europe, working with government agencies, Fortune 100 corporations, and AM Law 100 firms to provide complete collection, correct analysis of incidents and issues, and specialises in complex investigations, data privacy, risk identification, and information security.

Tim has worked very closely for many years with corporate counsel and external lawyers supporting investigative matters and identifying risk in electronic data and assisting clients creating bespoke workflows to hit investigative milestones.

Tim is a consortium member of several forensics organisations and continually speaks and writes on matters relating to electronic investigations.

He is also a Board Member of the Digital Forensics Certification Board (DFCB) and is their Chair of the International Liaison Committee. Tim relies on 15 years' experience in data investigations to assist clients worldwide.

Anton G. Maurer

Anton Maurer International Legal Services Rechtsanwalts-gesellschaft MbH Stuttgart, Germany

anton.maurer@am-legal.com

Dr. Anton G. Maurer, LL.M. (Suffolk University, Boston, MA), FCI Arb is an independent arbitrator since 2017 and sat as Chair, single arbitrator, or co-arbitrator under various arbitration rules. He is listed as foreign arbitrator with many arbitration institutions in Asia, Europe, and the USA (CPR and ICDR). He represented clients in or with respect to more than 65 countries and more than 95 jurisdictions, and he has international experience in a broad variety of legal fields and various industries; and based on this experience he is often appointed as arbitrator in international commercial disputes, and post M&A disputes. Clients and colleagues praised Anton Maurer in The International Legal Who's Who Germany as seasoned arbitrator and for his thoroughness, diligent manner, wide ranging business knowledge, commercial approach and brilliant commercial acumen, and rated him as world-class.

Bernhard F. MeyerMME Compliance AGZurich, Switzerland*bernhard.meyer@mme.ch

Dr. Bernhard Meyer is an internationally renowned arbitrator and litigation specialist as well as a founding partner of MME Legal AG. He is Past-Vice-President of the Swiss Arbitration Association (ASA), Past-President of the ICC Arbitration Commission Switzerland, former Head of the Arbitration Section of the Zurich Bar Association, and former Leader of the ASA Zurich Local Group. In the international arena, Bernhard was a Jurisdictional Council Member of the Inter-Pacific Bar Association (IPBA), former Vice-Chair of the IPBA's Dispute Resolution Committee, and a past Chair of the International Sales Committee of the International Bar Association (IBA). Dr. Meyer is the author and co-author of numerous books and publications, particularly in the field of arbitration and procedural law. He acted as Presiding Arbitrator, Co-Arbitrator, and Counsel in more than 240 international arbitrations, primarily under the following rules: International Chamber of Commerce (ICC); Swiss Rules of International Arbitration (Swiss Arbitration Centre); London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA); SIAC Arbitration Rules (Singapore); ICDR/AAA Rules; Vienna Rules (Vienna International Arbitration Centre); WIPO Arbitration Rules; ICSID Rules; UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, and in ad hoc cases. In January 2019, the Swiss Confederation designated Dr. Meyer to serve as a permanent Swiss Member of the Panel of Conciliators for ICSID arbitrations until 2027.

Christian Murad

Kellogg Company

Dubai, United Arab Emirates

christian.murad@kellogg.com

Christian is a U.S./Canadian qualified lawyer who currently works at Kellogg as Legal Director, MENAT. He specializes in corporate commercial law, mergers and acquisitions, compliance, investigation, and international litigation. Prior to joining Kellogg, Christian held in-house roles at multinational corporations in banking and a consumer and industrial conglomerate in the U.S. and Dubai.

Christian has a bachelor's degree in Commerce and Finance from the University of Toronto and a law degree from Wayne State University Law School. In his free time, Christian enjoys exercising, going for long walks with his two kids and French Bulldog (Tank), and watching/playing football and basketball.

Maria Orlyk

CMS Reich-Rohrwig Hainz

Vienna, Austria

maria.orlyk@cms-rrh.com

Maria Orlyk is the Managing Partner of Kyiv office of CMS Reich-Rohrwig Hainz. She is a Co-Head of Energy and Climate Change Group of CMS Reich-Rohrwig Hainz firm (encompassing a total of 11 offices in different jurisdictions). She specializes in Corporate Governance, Corporate, M&A, Energy, Competition, and DR. Maria is the Chair of the Committee on Corporate Law and Stock Markets of Ukrainian Bar Association, and Deputy Chair of the Commercial Law Committee of Ukrainian National Bar Association. Maria is a co-author of the new Law of Ukraine on Limited and Additional Liability Companies adopted and enacted in 2018 foreseeing deep and comprehensive reform of corporate law and corporate governance in LLCs.

She is continuously ranked for Corporate and M&A by Chambers Global and Chambers Europe. Maria is recognized as leading individual by Legal500 for “Commercial, corporate and M&A” and “Competition.” She is listed in latest editions of Who's Who Legal: M&A and Governance; and regularly recognized in Ukrainian legal rankings.

She holds an LL.M. degree from Wake Forest University School of Law, and was a recipient of Edmund S. Muskie Graduate Fellowship Program of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs of the United States Department of State (2005-2006).

Doris Pichler-Herrig

IKEA

Vienna, Austria

Mag. Doris Pichler - Professional experience: IKEA Austria GmbH/Country Legal Manager, BEKO Engineering & Informatik GmbH/Senior Legal Counsel, Fujitsu Technology Solutions GesmbH/Legal & Commercial Manager, Local Compliance Advisor Ericsson Austria GmbH/Group Legal Counsel Schuppich Sporn & Winischhofer, Attorneys at Law, Vienna Education: University of Vienna, Law Faculty

Axel Reeg

*Reeg Rechtsanwälte
Mannheim, Germany
reeg@reeglaw.com*

In 1993, Axel Reeg has established Reeg Rechtsanwälte, a German niche law firm active in cross-border arbitration and litigation with associated offices in Kuala Lumpur and Madrid.

Having read law at the Universities of Munich, Singapore, and Freiburg, Axel is holding a Ph.D. in law and admitted to the Bars in Germany and Spain. He lectures International Commercial Arbitration at the University of Heidelberg. Axel has extensive experience in cross-border dispute resolution, both as an arbitrator (primarily ICC, SAC, and DIS) and as counsel in international arbitration and before state courts. Axel has a special focus on Dispute Resolution related to Asian and Spanish speaking jurisdictions, acting both as arbitrator and as party counsel in many arbitrations involving international parties in different venues including Singapore, Shanghai, and Hong Kong; Zurich; Madrid; and Frankfurt.

Inter alia, Axel Reeg is an immediate past member of the Board of Trustees of CI Arb (2013-2020) and a past vice chair of the DRA Committee of the IPBA. Axel is a member of ICC, ICCA, IBA, DIS, CEA, and ASA. Presently, he is a co-leader of the practice group on “settlement” within the DIS rules clinic. He regularly speaks and publishes on international dispute resolution topics including articles and contributions on arbitral tribunals engaging in settlement facilitation and on smart contracts and block chain arbitration.

2022 INTERNATIONAL CORPORATE COUNSEL COLLEGE SPEAKERS

Steven Rosenhek

Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP

Toronto, ON Canada

srosenhek@fasken.com

Steven is a senior litigation partner at Fasken in Toronto. He is a seasoned trial lawyer who has an excellent reputation for handling complex commercial litigation and defending multi-jurisdictional class actions and regulatory matters. His clients consider him a trusted legal advisor who is a strategic thinker as well as a first-class, results-oriented advocate. He has experience before all levels of court in Canada, and a wide range of regulatory and administrative tribunals. His litigation skills are recognized by Lexpert Canada, Benchmark Canada, Who's Who Legal, and the Legal 500. In 2010, he received the OBA Award for Distinguished Service, recognizing exceptional career contributions and achievements by an OBA member to the legal profession, jurisprudence, and the residents of Ontario.

Tom Spencer

GlaxoSmithKline

London, England

tom.b.spencer@gsk.com

Tom is Assistant General Counsel at GlaxoSmithKline. His work involves all types of litigation and investigations supporting the vaccines, pharmaceuticals, and consumer businesses in EMEA and Australasia.

Döne Yalçın

CMS

Istanbul, Turkey

doene.yalcin@cms-rrh.com

Dr. Döne Yalçın is the Managing Partner of CMS Turkey and Head of the Dispute Resolution and Projects & Infrastructure teams. She is also the CMS Head of Sustainability for Vienna & CEE. She has more than 18 years of professional experience in cross border matters, utilising her disputes background. She is a dual-qualified Turkish and Austrian lawyer, and a specialist in ESG-related legal matters and climate change disputes.

Drawing on her proven disputes expertise, she negotiates strategic sector-specific commercial contracts for high profile inbound and outbound investments involving Turkish parties. Infrastructure is a particular focus for her, from PPPs to turnkey power plant projects. In addition, she advises clients on a broad range of commercial matters, including private and commercial law, procurement, and sales activities, leveraging her commercial disputes experience. Recent key disputes include contractor disputes, the enforcement of arbitral awards, unfair competition challenges in the retail sector, distributorship disagreements between European and Turkish parties, pandemic-related supply chain issues, waste management regulatory compliance, and real estate disputes.

She is the International Committee Chair of the International Association of Defense Counsel (IADC), a board member of DenizBank AG, and Vice President of the Association of Austrian and Turkish Entrepreneurs and Industrialists (ATIS), as well as a member of the Steering Committee of the Campaign for Greener Arbitrations.

Within CMS, she is the head of Knowledge Management, Legal Tech and Sustainability for 11 CEE jurisdictions. She received her PhD from the University of Vienna in Real Estate and Construction Law.