Re: IADC Trial Academy Details

Congratulations on your acceptance in the 50th IADC Trial Academy! The Academy will commence the morning of Saturday, August 3 and will conclude the morning of Friday, August 9. The Academy will be held at Stanford University Law School in Palo Alto, California. You will find some general information below that will assist you in making your travel arrangements and planning for the Trial Academy.

PROGRAM MATERIALS

Your hypothetical case materials and demonstration assignments can be found at this link: <https://www.iadclaw.org/2024-trial-academy-materials> It is imperative that you study these materials in advance of the Academy. You should come to the Academy prepared to perform your assigned demonstrations. Please note that your specific student number and group number are important to your demonstration assignments. (See "Trial Academy Faculty and Student Groups" document for student # and "Student Assignments 2024" document on web page referenced above.)

ARRIVAL

Students should arrive the afternoon or evening of Friday, August 2 or the morning of Saturday, August 3. The Academy program begins at 8:00 a.m. on Saturday, August 3, with breakfast being served from 6:30 a.m. until 8:00 a.m. that morning. Participants may depart anytime on Friday, August 9 with check out by noon. If you are arriving after 8:00 p.m. on Friday or before 8:00 a.m. on Saturday, please notify Maddie Pangyarihan at mpangyarihan@iadclaw.org as soon as possible for important after-hours information. (See also below under "Housing")

TRANSPORTATION TO STANFORD

Because the Trial Academy takes place on campus, some registrants find it unnecessary to rent cars and instead use Uber or Lyft for ventures off campus; however, car rental is available at the airport and on campus. Hertz has a branch at Stanford. You can contact them directly at Hertz Car Rental | Stanford Transportation. Stanford has one of the largest university Zipcar programs in the nation with twenty four Zipcar locations at Stanford. Most Zipcars at Stanford are fuel-efficient hybrid vehicles. Rates start at $11.00 per hour and include gas and insurance. Learn more at <https://transportation.stanford.edu/zipcar-stanford>.

If you have a car, you will be required to buy a parking pass. These passes can be purchased online and the cost per day is $5.45. Monthly parking is $35.00 and you would purchase a monthly pass to use for the entire week of the conference. All permits are non-refundable. To purchase parking on-line: EventsTitle \(nupark.com\) Click on the link and it will take you to the page to record your vehicle information and eventually credit card information. Parking will be available in an underground garage adjacent ("Wilbur Field Garage," 560 Wilbur Way, Stanford) to the residence center where you will be staying. (See map on web page). It is very important to park only in the spaces designated for the type of parking pass you purchase or you will be ticketed, so please review that information when you purchase your pass. Passes are valid in the following residential permit areas: EA, ES, SO, SJ, and WE. You cannot park in areas designated for other letter combinations or in visitor pay parking spots or you will be ticketed a minimum of $41 for a permit violation to $753 for illegally parking in a disabled space by the Santa Clara County Sherriff.

If you plan to fly into San Francisco or San Jose, the University recommends using Uber or Lyft. If traveling by taxi, Uber, or Lyft, please tell your driver that your destination is the Munger Graduate Housing on the Stanford University Campus located near the intersection of Campus Drive and Mayfield. An exact address to use when directing your driver is 554 Salvatierra Walk.

For further information on public transportation options and driving directions to campus, please visit: <https://transportation.stanford.edu/>

WEATHER

The weather in Palo Alto is forecasted for temperatures in the 80s during the day and mid 50s during the night. Please pack your attire accordingly for these varying temperatures. All indoor areas used by the conference are air-conditioned facilities.

ATTIRE

The dress code varies during the day. Generally, before lunch during the faculty demonstrations, business or smart casual clothing is appropriate. However, after lunch during the student demonstrations, you should plan to wear courtroom attire. Bring a comfortable change of shoes for walking between buildings on campus as well as a bag to carry your belongings and conference materials. Business or smart casual attire is appropriate for the social functions in the evening.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Trial Academy covers each segment of a trial, and you will perform the role of counsel in each aspect of a trial. The Academy emphasizes the “learning by doing” approach. The schedule is devised so that you will watch faculty demonstrations most mornings, and you will present an opening statement, direct and cross examination of lay witnesses, direct and cross examination of medical and economic expert witnesses, and closing arguments during the afternoon sessions. Please review the hypothetical problems used in the exercises and your assignments. You should come to the Academy prepared to perform your assigned demonstrations. Please note that your specific student number and group number are important to your demonstration assignments. (See “Trial Academy Faculty and Student Groups” document for student # and “Student Assignments 2024” document on web page referenced above for specific assignments.) Regardless of assignment, you should be familiar with all of the hypothetical cases and be prepared to work in various roles within each of the student cases when you arrive at Stanford. Everyone, including the witnesses, are using the same set of facts presented in the case materials. Do not interject facts which are incompatible with the facts in the materials and for which you cannot expect the witness to have knowledge of or follow. There are inconsistencies in the problems by design and you must deal with those and discuss this with your witness during prep time at the Academy. During the exercises, you may want to use demonstrative aids. Each classroom is equipped with a computer and projection capabilities. If you use PowerPoint, please plan to bring your presentation on a flash drive to transfer your presentation to the classroom’s computer. Each room will also have an easel, flip chart, whiteboard, and remote slide advancer/laser pointer. Please bring any adapters you might need if you are hooking up a personal Notebook or Mac laptop for projection. Please note that the classrooms do not have an ELMO for document projection. It is entirely your responsibility to prepare in advance any demonstrative aids you would like to use. None will be prepared for you.

GENERAL SCHEDULE

Students should plan to arrive on the afternoon or evening of Friday, August 2. An optional walking tour of the Stanford University Campus is offered for Trial Academy students from 6-7:30 p.m. Please meet outside of the Munger Conference Front Desk of Building 5 to participate. The formal program will begin at 8:00 a.m. on Saturday, August 3. A buffet style breakfast will be offered in Munger Building 4 beginning at 6:30 a.m. prior to the opening session. The program will conclude with a dinner at the Stanford Faculty Club on Thursday, August 8. Breakfast will be offered on Friday, August 9.
