2017 International Corporate Counsel College

The International Corporate Counsel College brings together in-house counsel and their law firm counterparts for two days of education and discussion on the latest legal issues affecting global companies. The event is modelled on the highly successful IADC Corporate Counsel College that is held each year in the United States. This distinctive meeting format creates an intimate environment, providing the opportunity for in-house counsel and their advisors to gain knowledge together and spend time with others who face similar issues. The IADC is pleased to invite you to the annual International Corporate Counsel College in Amsterdam on 9 - 10 November 2017.

Who may attend?

The event is designed primarily for in-house counsel of corporations. Outside counsel also are welcome, provided they come with one or more in-house counsel.

The International Association of Defense Counsel (IADC) has been serving a distinguished membership of corporate and insurance defense lawyers since 1920.

Its activities benefit the approximately 2,500 invitation-only, peer-reviewed members from around the world and their clients, as well as the civil justice system and the legal profession. In addition, the IADC takes a leadership role in many areas of legal reform and professional development.

Programming

THURSDAY, 9 NOVEMBER

WELCOME LUNCHEON – GUEST SPEAKER: THE HONORABLE JUSTICE JAMIE K. TRIMBLE, JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT OF JUSTICE OF ONTARIO, CANADA

Justice Trimble was appointed to the Ontario Superior Court (Canada), Ontario's highest trial court, in December 2013. He sits in Brampton but circuits throughout the Central West Region.

Justice Trimble articulated with, then practised with, Hughes Amys following his call to the Bar in Ontario in 1989. In his 25 years as a member of the Bar in Ontario, Justice Trimble had a broad litigation practice focusing on disputes involving insurance policy wording and coverage (first and third party) tort, negligence, professional negligence, construction, and contracts. He appeared in all levels of Court.

From 2009 to 2013, Justice Trimble was President of The Arc Group Canada, an affiliation of firms across Canada serving the insurance and risk management communities. In 2001, he became a certified Risk Manager, and was certified by the Law Society of Upper Canada as a Specialist in Civil Litigation. For his last ten years of practice, Justice Trimble was recognized by L'Expert as a leading litigator in commercial insurance. In 2011, Justice Trimble became a member of the IADC.

Trimble's extra-curricular activities focussed on professional excellence. He has been a member of the Ontario Bar Association (OBA) since his days at law school. The Ontario Bar Association is the Provincial chapter of the Canadian Bar Association, and the largest such association in Canada. #### OPENING REMARKS

William J. Perry, 2017 International Corporate Counsel College Director, Carter Perry Bailey LLP, London, United Kingdom

INTRODUCTION TO THE IADC

Andrew Kopon, Jr., IADC President, Kopon Airdo, LLC, Chicago, IL USA

13.30 - 14.30

ACT OF STATE – EXPROPRIATION AND INTERFERENCE: WHAT DO YOU DO?

How can a company respond to a foreign government expropriating or otherwise interfering with the company's operations or investments in that government's country? The "Act of State" doctrine is essentially that the courts of the company's home country will not accept jurisdiction over the executive acts of a foreign government in its own territory. So what solutions are there? Resolving by arbitration? Commercial or diplomatic pressure?

What precautions can a company take when setting up or investing abroad? Is political risk insurance for physical asset loss or for foreign government default a solution? What are the countries of current concern? What if a change of government (democratically or not), or just a capricious change of will, leads to a state dishonouring its obligations?

Moderator: Richard Eveleigh, Financial Lines Innovation Leader, AIG Europe Limited, London, United Kingdom

Presenters: Vlad Bobko, Head of Crisis Management, Aon Global Broking Centre, London, United Kingdom; Rodman Bundy, Director, Dispute Resolution Group, Eversheds Harry Elias, Singapore

14.30 - 14.45

BREAK

14.45 - 15.45

BUSINESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS

The impact of business on society has given rise to an increasing focus on the responsibility of corporations to respect the human rights of those impacted by their business operations. This is being reflected in an increasing amount of both “hard” and “soft” law, corporate social responsibility guidelines and activism from, amongst others, civil society and socially responsible and ethical investors. This session will examine what corporations are required to do, what is expected of them, how realistic those expectations are, and what role in-house and external counsel can play.

Moderator: Peter J. Rees, Q.C., 39 Essex Chambers, London, United Kingdom

Presenters: Richard Harvey, Legal Counsel, Campaigns and Actions, Greenpeace International, Netherlands; Barrister, Garden Court Chambers, London, United Kingdom; Suzanne Spears, Partner, Volterra Fietta, London, United Kingdom; Andrew Vickers, Communications Director, Chrysaor, London, United Kingdom

15.45 - 16.00

BREAK

16.00 - 17.00

ENFORCEMENT OF FOREIGN JUDGEMENTS AND ARBITRAL AWARDS

The panel will discuss whether a successful party can enforce a foreign judgement or a foreign arbitral award abroad with a special emphasis on Brazil, China, Russia, and the United Kingdom (after Brexit). Can the successful party enforce a foreign judgement in Brazil, China, Russia, or the United Kingdom, and can a judgement rendered in Brazil, China, Russia, or the United Kingdom be enforced in the EU? Will it be easier to enforce an arbitral award abroad, especially in our focus countries, and will such enforcement depend in which country the award was made? Will it be necessary to reconsider existing jurisdiction and arbitration clauses? What has a company to consider when it discusses whether to include a jurisdiction clause or an arbitration clause in a contract?

Moderator: Dr. Anton G. Maurer, Attorney and Managing Director, Anton Maurer International Legal Services Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH, Stuttgart, Germany

Presenters: Simon Bai, Managing Partner, ChenYi Law Firm, Tianjin, China; Wendy J. Miles, Q.C., Partner, Debevoise & Plimpton, London, United Kingdom; Fernando Serec, Head of Litigation and Arbitration, Tozzini Freire, São Paulo, Brazil; Maxim Zgodko, Head of Legal Practice, Ackermann Bellmer, Moscow, Russia

17.00 - 17.15

BREAK

17.15 - 18.15

SOCIAL MEDIA

Who would not be proud to see the comments and appraisals from the enthusiastic followers and customers on your company’s blog? But what if one of your customers who happens to have a large number of followers starts to write about the ‘horrible product experience’? Or the ‘arrogance of your customer care staff’? And how do you react to comments of your employees insulting your customers? And what do you expect from the social platform operator if the dialogue escalates? Do you get engaged in your employees’ private activities on social media? What are the limits of freedom of speech? And with all these risks does social media actually allow you to successfully communicate?

Moderator: Volker Weisshaar, General Counsel and Board Member, EMEA, Sonos Inc., Hilversum, Netherlands

Presenters: Sedge Beswick, Managing Director, SEEN Connects, London, United Kingdom; Tobias Haar, General Counsel & EVP Corporate Functions, Gameforge Group, Karlsruhe, Germany; Tom Harding, Associate Director, Osborne Clarke, London, United Kingdom

18.30 - 19.30

COCKTAIL RECEPTION

DINNER – GUEST SPEAKER: “TOO BIG TO FAIL”: EDGAR DU PERRON, NOW A DUTCH SUPREME COURT JUSTICE, SHARES PERSONAL REFLECTIONS ON HIS TIME AS A FINANCIAL SERVICES OMBUDSMAN AND INVESTIGATOR OF TWO BANK COLLAPSES – AND THE LESSONS THEY TEACH!

Prof. Edgar du Perron (1965) was appointed professor of private law at the University of Amsterdam in 1999 and was one of the youngest tenured law professors in the Netherlands. From 2006 to 2016, he served as Dean of the Amsterdam Law School. He was appointed to the Dutch Supreme Court per 1 April 2016. # FRIDAY, 10 NOVEMBER

8.00 - 9.00

WHEN THE WHISTLE BLOWS

Whistleblowing is on everyone's lips. It is a continuous relevant topic that keeps in-house legal and compliance departments, public authorities, and private practitioners busy. This panel, composed of specialists both from common law and civil law countries, will introduce the audience to whistleblowing legislation and the different approaches that Europe and the US have taken on this subject. They will address best practices, including recent developments, difficulties, legal and practical boundaries, and recent court cases.

Moderator: Dr. Jens Burgard, Head of Compliance Case Handling Legal, Siemens AG, Erlangen, Germany

Presenters: Rossana Buzzi, Assistant General Counsel, Compliance & Ethics, Leader South Europe, Schneider Electric SA, Milan, Italy; Richard E. Glaze, Jr., Partner, Balch & Bingham, Atlanta, Georgia USA; Ronald Steen, Senior Prosecutor, Prosecutor's Office Rotterdam, Rotterdam, Netherlands

9.00 - 10.00

AFRICAN TRADE LAW AND THE IMPACT ON FOREIGN INVESTMENT

Africa's dire need of foreign investment on a massive scale is a timely topic. Would-be foreign investors are often discouraged by concerns about the capacity of African legal regimes to protect them adequately. Among the reasons for these concerns are laws fixing compulsory minimum equity stakes for citizens in specified sectors and exchange control regulations. Other recurring concerns include the fear of expropriation and other high-handed administrative action as well as risks of immunity, delays, bias, and ineffectiveness in the dispute resolution process. Members of the panel are distinguished litigators from southern, eastern, and western Africa and they will consider the extent to which such concerns may be well-founded and the options for addressing them.

Moderator: Prof. Gbolahan Elias, Principal Partner, G. Elias & Co., Lagos, Nigeria

Presenters: Aisha Abdallah, Head of Litigation, Anjarwalla & Khanna, Nairobi, Kenya; Priyesh Daya, Partner, Webber Wentzel, Johannesburg, South Africa

10.00 - 10.15

BREAK

10.15 - 11.15

DAWN RAIDS: WHEN THE GOING GETS TOUGH AND THE TOUGH GET GOING

With cartel-busting at the top of the competition law enforcement agenda, competition authorities worldwide are using their dawn raid powers increasingly aggressively. Many authorities have also recently updated their procedures, in particular with respect to IT search, to allow for more effective evidence gathering. Whilst the authorities do not have unlimited powers in relation to dawn raids, companies must be very careful when making any tactical challenges to the exercise of their powers, as any improper obstruction can lead to significant fines. This session includes a mock dawn raid of the room. You will be put through a mock dawn raid procedure and receive a de-briefing from the panelists who will share their experience from a number of different national jurisdictions.

Moderator: Peter Citron, Counsel, Hogan Lovells LLP, Brussels, Belgium

Presenters: Hanna Danwall, Head of Competition Law, Carlsberg Breweries A/S, Copenhagen, Denmark; Dr. Petra Linsmeier, Partner, Gleiss Lutz, Munich, Germany; Helene Millenaar, Director, Competition Law, AkzoNobel, Amsterdam, Netherlands

11.15 - 11.30

BREAK

11.30 - 12.30

FOLLOW UP ON "FOLLOW-ON" ACTIONS

Private competition litigation is still rather young in Europe but fast-growing. The implementation of the EU Directive of 26 November 2014 on "certain rules governing actions for damages under national law for infringements of the competition law provisions of the Member States and of the European Union" is well underway. This panel of expert practitioners will look at the threats and opportunities for corporations arising from these so-called follow-on actions. They will focus on issues such as passing-on and the shift of the burden of proof, the quantification of damages and the presumption of loss, funding and access to the authorities' file, on the geography of claims in the context of the Brexit and of the rise of collective actions in Europe.

Moderator: Thomas Rouhette, Partner, Hogan Lovells (Paris) LLP, Paris, France

Presenters: Jacques Derenne, Partner, Sheppard Mullin, Brussels, Professor, Liège University and Brussels School of Competition, Belgium; Laurent Geelhand, Partner, Hausfeld, London, United Kingdom & Brussels, Belgium (formerly General Counsel Europe for Michelin); Sophie Service, Senior Litigation Counsel, Telefonica UK Limited, London, United Kingdom

12.30 - 13.15

A BREXIT FIELD GUIDE

Speaker: Rt. Hon. Dominic Grieve Q.C., M.P., M.P. for Beaconsfield, former Attorney General for England and Wales and Advocate General for Northern Ireland, and Chairman of the Intelligence and Security Committee of the Parliament of the United Kingdom

13.15 - 13.20

CLOSING REMARKS

William J. Perry, International Corporate Counsel College Director, Carter Perry Bailey LLP, London, United Kingdom

Prof. Ianika Tzankova, International Corporate Counsel College Director-Elect, Tilburg University, Hansfield, Netherlands
