

Mark A. Behrens, Esq.
Shook, Hardy & Bacon L.L.P.
Washington, D.C.

Mark Behrens co-chairs the Washington, DC-based Public Policy Group of Shook, Hardy & Bacon L.L.P. A substantial part of his practice is working to improve the civil litigation environment through legislation; in the courts through amicus curiae briefs on behalf of business, civil justice and defense lawyer organizations; through legal scholarship and judicial education; and in the court of public opinion.

In 2016, Mark received the IADC's Joan Fullam Irick Award for his work as Civil Justice Response Committee chair. In 2015, he received the U.S. Chamber Institute for Legal Reform's Individual Achievement Award.

Mark has authored or co-authored over 150 amicus briefs on behalf of national and state business and civil justice organizations in cases before the United States Supreme Court, federal appellate courts, and state appellate courts. He has testified before the U.S. Congress and numerous state legislatures. He has also served as an expert witness in trials and arbitrations.

Mark is a member of The American Law Institute (ALI) and serves as an Adviser to the ALI's Restatement Third, Torts: Intentional Torts to Persons project. In 2010, Mark taught Advanced Torts as a Distinguished Visiting Practitioner in Residence at Pepperdine University School of Law. Earlier, he served on the adjunct faculty of American University Washington College of Law.

Mark received his J.D. from Vanderbilt University Law School in 1990 and B.A. in Economics from the University of Wisconsin in 1987.
