

Neal S. Berinhout
AT&T Services, Inc.
Atlanta, Georgia

As Vice President and Associate General Counsel – Litigation for AT&T Services, Inc., Neal Berinhout is responsible for litigation and arbitration matters at AT&T. Prior to joining AT&T in-house in 2000, Mr. Berinhout was a partner at Kilpatrick Stockton (now Kilpatrick Townsend) in Atlanta, where he specialized in complex litigation. Before he moved with his family to Atlanta, he was an associate at Morrison & Foerster in San Francisco, where he also specialized in complex civil litigation. He has handled significant matters in trial courts throughout the United States and in federal and state appellate courts, including the United States Supreme Court.

Mr. Berinhout has been actively involved in legal reform, particularly with respect to class actions and arbitration. In 2014, the National Law Journal named him to its inaugural list of 50 Litigation Trailblazers & Pioneers, recognizing a select group of U.S. lawyers “who have helped make a difference in the fight for justice.” In February 2016, he was again singled out by the National Law Journal, this time for its inaugural list of 48 ADR Champions, persons “who continue to make their mark in the field of alternative dispute resolution, showing a deep passion and perseverance, and achieving remarkable successes along the way.” In October 2016, he was elected to the American Law Institute.
