

Janelle L. Davis
Thompson & Knight LLP
Dallas, Texas

As the Assistant General Counsel at Thompson & Knight, Janelle oversees the review and analysis of conflicts for all new business and lateral hires. She also supports the Firm's General Counsel with the management of professional liability issues, representation of the Firm in disputes, records retention, and in-house ethics education.

Prior to becoming Thompson & Knight's Assistant General Counsel, Janelle was a partner in the Firm's trial section where she represented clients before federal and state trial courts in matters involving antitrust, advertising, aviation, and products liability litigation. She has extensive experience counseling clients on how to reduce legal risk and in managing litigation, including coordination with national and discovery counsel, expert witnesses, and trial counsel.