

Jerry Dent
Alvarez & Marsal
Birmingham, Alabama

Jerry Dent is a Managing Director with Alvarez & Marsal and co-head of the Real Estate and Environmental Economics practice. Mr. Dent also serves on both the North American and global executive committees for the firm's Disputes and Investigations practice. He specializes in analyzing real estate and environmental damages, development and administration of Value Assurance Programs and Institutional Control Programs, determination of exposure and liabilities in environmental matters, and administration of settlement funds. With more than 25 years of consulting experience, Mr. Dent has served as a testifying expert and consulting expert on numerous individual, mass tort and class action environmental matters involving air, groundwater, surface water and soil contaminants across the United States and abroad.

Mr. Dent earned a bachelor's degree in finance from the University of Alabama and a master's degree in business administration from the University of Mississippi. He is a designated CRE by the Counselors of Real Estate, a designated FRICS by the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, a designated ASA by the American Society of Appraisers, and a designated CCIM by the CCIM Institute. Mr. Dent is currently pursuing a post-graduate certificate in the Global Executive Leadership Program at the Yale School of Management.