

Asim Desai
Gordon & Rees, LLP
Los Angeles, California

Asim is a litigation partner in the firm's Los Angeles office. He has extensive experience in high-stakes, complex litigation including insurance bad faith, corporate fraud, commercial litigation, intellectual property, product liability, professional liability and catastrophic personal injuries. Mr. Desai is routinely retained to associate or substitute in as trial counsel on the eve of trial in multi-million dollar exposure cases and has served several insurance carriers and in defense of the businesses they insure.

Mr. Desai has authored numerous articles on trial preparation and techniques, insurance bad faith, unauthorized practice of law and punitive damages, and is routinely invited to speak for various national organizations such as Defense Research Institute, the Property Loss Research Bureau, International Association of Defense Counsel and American Conference Institute. Mr. Desai is admitted to all California State and Federal Courts and is a member of the invitation only International Association of Defense Counsel and the Million Dollar Advocates Forum.