

David L. Ferrera
Nutter McClennen & Fish LLP
Boston, Massachusetts

David L. Ferrera is a partner in the Litigation Department and chair of the Product Liability practice group at Nutter McClennen & Fish LLP in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. His practice covers a broad range of civil disputes, with an emphasis on drug and medical device litigation. In addition to trial and appellate experience, Mr. Ferrera represents clients at arbitrations and mediations in multiple U.S. forums, and works closely with in-house and outside counsel in Canada, Europe, and Asia-Pacific on litigation issues affecting multi-national clients.

Frequently sought by the media to comment on product liability law, David has appeared on New England Cable News (NECN) and has published articles in such diverse publications as The Boston Globe, The National Law Journal, Bloomberg BNA, Inside Counsel, and Mass High Tech. He has co-authored numerous legal works, and is editor of the Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education textbook Massachusetts Courtroom Advocacy. Mr. Ferrera is often called upon to speak at programs on legal issues to business professionals and in-house counsel at such venues as the American Bar Association, Boston Bar Association, Defense Research Institute, and American Conference Institute, and currently serves as IADC's Vice Chair of CLE – Annual Meeting for the Drug, Device and Biotechnology Committee. Actively involved in public service initiatives throughout Greater Boston, Mr. Ferrera is a former Trustee and Treasurer of the Boston Bar Foundation, the charitable affiliate of the Boston Bar Association that awards funds collected from the Massachusetts IOLTA Program and an annual charitable gala. He earned his J.D. from New York University and his B.A., magna cum laude, from the College of the Holy Cross.