

Emily Brubaker Harris
Corr Cronin LLP
Seattle, Washington

Emily is the firm's managing partner. Her practice focuses on complex civil litigation, class action defense, products liability, real estate litigation, and employment litigation, at both the trial and appellate level. Emily is also one of the lead attorneys representing King County in a series of cases involving rails-to-trails, which raises complex legal issues and unique discovery problems. Emily was also one of the lead attorneys in the wrongful death claims litigated against landowners and government entities arising from the 2014 Oso Landslide. Emily excels in handling large and complex matters that require creative problem-solving, diligence, and fine attention to detail.

Prior to joining Corr Cronin in 2004, Emily was a litigation associate at O'Melveny & Myers LLP in Los Angeles, and she clerked for the Honorable Thomas G. Nelson, Ninth Circuit, United States Court of Appeals. Emily has been selected as a "Rising Star" in Seattle's legal community. She is licensed to practice in Washington and California.
