

Mary Robinson
Robinson, Stewart, Montgomery, & Doppke LLC
Chicago, Illinois

Mary Robinson is a partner in Robinson, Stewart, Montgomery & Doppke, LLC. She and her firm represent lawyers in disciplinary investigations and prosecutions, advise lawyers and law firms on ethical issues and best practices for implementing ethical obligations, and provide expert witness services in legal malpractice cases and other matters where professional responsibility issues are being litigated. The firm also advises nonlawyer-owned businesses that facilitate the provision of legal services. Prior to founding that practice in 2007, Ms. Robinson served for fifteen years (from 1992 to 2007) as Administrator of the Attorney Registration & Disciplinary Commission of the Supreme Court of Illinois. She came to that position after 18 years of practice, first with the Illinois State Appellate Defender and then as a small firm concentrating in appellate, criminal and family law.

Ms. Robinson is a frequent speaker for national, state and local bar association programs on ethics and professional responsibility issues. She has served as a member of the ABA Standing Committee on Ethics and Professional Responsibility and the ABA Standing Committee on Professional Discipline, and as Chair of the Planning Committee for the ABA National Conference on Professional Responsibility, as well as a member of several Illinois State Bar Association Committees, most recently, the Task Force on the Future of Legal Services. She is a proud recipient of the Lawyers Assistance Program Carl H. Rolewick Award, and a LAP volunteer. She received her law degree from the University of Southern California, and is licensed in Illinois and California.