

Alba Arriaga Romano
Riley, Hewitt, Witte & Romano, P.C.
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Alba Arriaga Romano is a partner at Riley Hewitt Witte & Romano in Pittsburgh, PA. She has also worked as trial counsel for CNA Insurance and she opened and managed the Pittsburgh office of a Philadelphia insurance defense firm. Alba presently serves as National Coordinating Counsel for an equipment manufacturer for whom she handles its mass tort litigation and also coordinates similar litigation for an automotive parts distributor.

Alba is fluent in Spanish and is a member of the Hispanic Attorneys Committee of the Allegheny County Bar Association. She is an active member of the IADC, in which she has served as a faculty member of the 2011 Trial Academy; chair and vice-chair of various committees, including the 2019 Annual Meeting Steering Committee and on the 2015 Nominating Committee and she is currently on the Foundation Board. Alba is married to Vince Romano and has two daughters, Gabriella and Isabella.