

Michael C. Zogby
Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP
Florham Park, New Jersey

Michael C. Zogby is co-chair of the Products Liability & Mass Tort department at Drinker Biddle, and he is co-chair of the firm's Pharma and Life Sciences Industry Group. His products liability trial practice includes the defense of major pharmaceutical and medical device companies in products liability, negligence, failure to warn, strict liability design and manufacturing defect, and wrongful death actions that involve prescription medications and orthopaedic implants before state and federal courts and in mass tort, class action, and multidistrict proceedings. He has been appointed liaison counsel, discovery counsel, and trial counsel in pharmaceutical, medical device, and mass tort litigations throughout the United States. Mike's commercial litigation trial and appellate experience includes representing pharmaceutical companies in patent infringement, Robinson-Patman Act, false marking, intellectual property, and antitrust actions, as well as defending large law and accounting firms in professional liability actions, defending hospitals and health care organizations in tortious interference, unfair competition, civil conspiracy, and ERISA matters, and representing a variety of other corporate clients in commercial, employment, insurance coverage and real estate litigation matters. Mike has significant experience coordinating cross-border discovery and data collections involving Asian and European companies in United States mass tort litigations.
