

Michael A. Airdo

Mr. Airdo is a founding partner of the law firm of Kopon Airdo, LLC in Chicago, Illinois. His area of practice focuses on the area of complex litigation including matters concerning premises liability, healthcare, and municipal law. He has a broad base of experience in representing the unique legal needs of religious institutes and religiously sponsored ministries. Mr. Airdo also specializes in legal matters involving not-for profit corporations, educational institutes, small businesses, and mental health professionals. He has a wide array of experience in resolving matters through both litigation and the alternative dispute resolution process. As a member of the IADC and other organizations, Mr. Airdo is a frequent lecturer on topics related to his practice. He has spoken and provided workshops concerning liability issues that arise in assisted living facilities, child serving organizations, and retail establishments. Michael serves as general counsel to the Conference of Major Superiors of Men, Associated Equipment Distributors, the Technology & Manufacturing Association, and Hanover and Palatine Townships. For 12 years, Mr. Airdo has served on the Village Board in Bartlett, Illinois, and served his last two years as mayor.