

Carl A. Aveni

Carl Aveni is a partner in the Litigation Practice Group of Carlile Patchen & Murphy in Columbus, Ohio. He concentrates his practice on the defense of complex commercial disputes and business torts, products liability, and professional liability cases before state and federal courts, as well as industry regulatory agencies. Carl has successfully argued before the Ohio Supreme Court, The United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Appellate Circuit, numerous state appellate courts and in trial courts throughout Ohio. He lectures frequently on trial tactics and techniques, and serves on the Franklin County Democratic Judicial Screening Committee and the Judicial Administration and Legal Reform Committee of the Ohio State Bar Association. Carl is the IADC's State Membership Chair for Southern Ohio. His greatest claim to fame, however, is his longstanding work as Den Leader for Cub Scout Den 4, Pack 74 in Columbus, Ohio—where he is regarded for both his encyclopedic knowledge of the funny campfire songs and his abysmal singing voice.
