

Mollie Benedict

Mollie Benedict is a partner at Tucker Ellis LLP, and Practice Group Leader for the firm's Medical Device & Pharmaceutical Liability Group. Ms. Benedict has more than 20 years of experience and has tried several cases to verdict. She handles complex business litigation matters with a focus on defending pharmaceutical and medical device companies in federal and state courts across the United States. She is currently lead national counsel in a large pharmaceutical litigation.

Ms. Benedict is an IADC Foundation Board Member, on IADC's Membership Committee and a member of the Defense Research Institute's Drug and Medical Device Steering Committee. She was the editor of DRI's Defense Library Book, FDA Basics for the Drug and Medical Device Lawyer. An advocate for women in the legal profession, she also contributed to DRI's Defense Library E-Book, Women Rainmakers: Roadmap to Success.