

Elizabeth (Lisa) J. Bondurant

Elizabeth (Lisa) J. Bondurant is a partner in Womble Carlyle's Business Litigation Practice Group. Her practice is concentrated in insurance litigation and ERISA. For over thirty years, Lisa has been lead counsel on a variety of cases involving complex insurance issues, ERISA, life, health, disability, and accidental death benefits, broker, and producer and agent disputes. She has published extensively and been a frequent speaker at seminars. Lisa's practice spans the Southeast and she is admitted in all federal and state courts in North Carolina and Georgia, and the Fourth, Sixth and Eleventh Circuit Courts of Appeal. Lisa is active in professional organizations and community affairs. She is a former chair of the Life, Health, and Disability Committee of the Defense Research Institute and the Life Insurance Committee of the Tort and Insurance Practice Section of the American Bar Association (TIPS). Lisa is also a member of the International Association of Defense Counsel and the Association of Life Insurance Counsel.