

Gordon J. Calhoun

Gordon J. Calhoun is a partner in the San Francisco office of Lewis Brisbois Bisgaard & Smith LLP and serves as Chair of the firm's nationwide Electronic Discovery, Information Management & Compliance Practice. He counsels individuals, partnerships, corporations, and other business entities on a variety of business, regulatory, and risk and information management protocols, including data breach responses and compliance practices. As a litigator, he focuses on complex cases involving large volumes of electronically stored information ("ESI").

Mr. Calhoun also chairs the firm's Insurance Regulatory & Compliance Practice, part of Lewis Brisbois' nationwide Insurance Law group. He has more than 39 years of experience handling arbitrations, mediations, and other alternative dispute resolution procedures, as well as litigation at the trial and appellate levels.