

E. Paul Cauley, Jr.

E. Paul Cauley, Jr. is a partner in the Dallas, Texas office of Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP. He represents companies in the automotive, consumer goods and other industries in a variety of high-exposure class action, product liability and commercial litigation cases across the country.

Getting his start as a trial lawyer, Paul has tried many product liability and commercial disputes to verdict and defended clients in many locales throughout the U.S., in addition to his home state of Texas. Over the last decade, he has also served as lead counsel in single and multidistrict litigation proceedings, and has been regularly tapped to coordinate the defense of class action suits pending in multiple jurisdictions from New York to Miami to Los Angeles to Seattle.

He has been recognized by on Texas Monthly's list of "Super Lawyers" for the last 15 years, recognized by The International Who's Who of Product Liability Defence Lawyers (2013-), and selected for inclusion in the Best Lawyers in America Guide – Product Liability Litigation (2014-). Paul is also very active in professional activities important to his clients. He is a sustaining member of the Product Liability Advisory Council and has been a leader in the International Association of Defense Counsel (IADC) where he served on the Board of Directors (2013-2016), the Board of Directors of the IADC Foundation (2011-2013), Chair of the Class Action and Multi-Party Litigation Committee (2011-2013), and the 2005 Trial Academy Faculty. He has also spoken on and moderated panels at Midyear and Annual meetings and the Corporate Counsel College.