

Daniel K. Cray

Daniel K. Cray is a founding partner in the firm of Cray Huber Horstman Heil & VanAusdal LLC, a Chicago-based law firm with a national civil trial practice. He has extensive trial experience in State and Federal Courts throughout the country, and has been admitted pro hac vice in over 25 states. His practice is concentrated in defending catastrophic loss cases. He is national trial and coordinating counsel for several national and international product manufacturers and sellers. He also defends the reputations of doctors and lawyers at trial and in administrative hearings.

Mr. Cray is a frequent presenter at legal and business conferences spanning a wide array of topics including: professional liability, products liability, toxic torts, jury trial innovations, limiting damages and preventive law techniques. At his age he also qualifies to lead a discussion on succession planning for law firms!
