

Mario Fiorino

Mario Fiorino is Director Legal and Assistant General Counsel at the Insurance Bureau of Canada, where he is coordinator of the National Commercial Standing Committee. Mario has a national practice and provides legal, business and government relations support to all IBC regional offices. Mario has worked with insurance professionals and organizations in all Canadian jurisdictions, the United States and Australia on emerging risks, professional liability, organizational development and change management issues. Mario is a graduate from the University of Windsor (Law) and Western University (Masters in Education).