

Justice Cory A. Gilmore

Ontario Superior Court of Justice – Toronto

Justice Gilmore was born in Toronto, Canada where she continues to live and work. She received her law degree in 1992 and worked in a general litigation law practice before being appointed to the bench in 2008. Justice Gilmore is married to Timothy Pinos, a senior partner at Cassels, Brock & Blackwell. Timothy is an IADC member.

As a member of the bench of the highest trial court in Ontario, Justice Gilmore hears a wide variety of cases. She has been President of the Ontario Superior Court Judges Association since January 2015. The Association represents 95% of the 330 Superior Court Judges in the Province of Ontario.

In terms of leisure activities, Cory adores golf. She also skis, snowboards, cycles and practices yoga. Cory came to the IADC meeting in Bermuda last July with her husband, Tim. She is famous for wearing the same dress to every event at the conference after Air Canada sent her luggage to Heathrow instead of Hamilton.
