

Rhonda Hunter

Rhonda Hunter serves as Chief of the Juvenile Division of the Dallas County District Attorneys' Office in Dallas, Texas, after having spent 30 years in private practice. Rhonda Hunter is past president of the Dallas Bar Association, the J.L.Turner Legal Association, the Dallas Association of Black Women Attorneys and the DBA Community Service Fund. Ms. Hunter is a former member of the State Bar of Texas Board of Directors, the National Conference of Bar Presidents' Executive Council, the Metropolitan Bar Caucus Executive Committee, the Supreme Court of Texas Board of Disciplinary Appeals and the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. She has also served as Chair of the Committee for a Qualified Judiciary.

Ms. Hunter is past course director for the Dallas Bar Association Implicit Bias seminars, DBA Diversity Summit, Dallas Minority Attorney Program, Hopwood: the Decision and Its Legacy seminars; and, is a frequent speaker and lecturer on implicit bias, marital property, trial skills, probate, CPS issues, child support, diversity and media relations. Programs developed by Ms. Hunter have won ABA Partnership Awards from the ABA and Star of Merit awards from the State Bar of Texas.

Ms. Hunter currently sits in the American Bar Association House of Delegates where she serves as Chair of the Minority Caucus Newsletter Committee; is a member of the ABA Commission on Youth at Risk, former ABA GPSolo Womens Caucus, and, former member of the ABA Diversity Center. She was named as one of the 500 Most Powerful Business Leaders in Dallas in 2016 and 2017 by D-CEO Magazine.