

Molly Jones

Molly Jones is Assistant General Counsel, Litigation, for Monsanto Company. She is responsible for the coordination of the defense of cases related to chemical liabilities and legacy company liabilities, insurance matters, and other business litigation. In the past two years, she has managed a docket of novel PCB cases and has been active in legislative reform affecting Monsanto and its litigation. She has also managed other legacy liabilities, such as Benzene, Agent Orange, Asbestos, and environmental liabilities. Prior to joining Monsanto, Ms. Jones was a partner at Bryan Cave LLP in St. Louis, where she handled product liability and commercial litigation matters. Ms. Jones earned her JD from Washington University in 2003 and holds a Bachelor of Science in Communications from the University of South Florida. Molly sits on the boards of the American Tort Reform Association, Civil Justice Reform Group and other legal reform organizations, as well as the St. Louis Zoo and the Missouri Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence.