

George C. Kokkines

George C. Kokkines is Vice President and Deputy General Counsel, Litigation and Compliance, at Takeda Pharmaceuticals U.S.A., Inc. In this role, Mr. Kokkines is responsible for managing Takeda's U.S. litigation, including mass tort, patent infringement, commercial and employment matters, as well as government investigations. He also has oversight responsibility for the legal compliance and privacy practice groups and the global records and information management department. Prior to joining Takeda in 2005, Mr. Kokkines was senior litigation counsel at Cardinal Health, Inc., a Fortune 50 health care company, and a litigation associate at Sidley Austin in Chicago. He also clerked for Judge John F. Grady in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. Mr. Kokkines received his J.D., magna cum laude, from Harvard Law School, where he was an editor of the Harvard Law Review. He graduated with a B.A. in economics, with highest distinction, from the University of Michigan.