

Frank Lattal

Frank Lattal is Senior Vice President and Chief Claims Officer for Chubb. He is responsible for all aspects of claims management and administration for Chubb through its worldwide network of claims officers.

Prior to ACE's acquisition of Chubb in January 2016, Mr. Lattal was Chief Claims Officer for ACE, a position he held since 2003. He was appointed Senior Vice President, ACE Group, in March 2014. Frank Lattal joined ACE in 1998, bringing with him more than 15 years of legal and claims experience. He initially worked for ACE Bermuda as Senior Vice President and Claims Counsel. In 2000, he was named Senior Vice President, Claims and Claims Counsel, and was appointed General Counsel for ACE Bermuda in 2002.

Prior to joining ACE, Mr. Lattal was Partner at Connell, Foley & Geiser, LLP, from 1984 to 1998.

Mr. Lattal holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Bucknell University, a law degree from Valparaiso University School of Law, and a Master's degree in Environmental Studies from Montclair State University. He is also admitted to practice law in both New York and New Jersey.