

Young Seok Lee

Young Seok Lee is a partner in the International Dispute Resolution Practice at Yulchon. He has handled international arbitration cases in various fields of industry, including international trade, distributorship, telecommunication, construction, engineering, and shipbuilding, under various international arbitration rules such as KCAB Rules, ICC Rules, ICDR Rules, SRIA Rules and UNCITRAL Rules. He has also handled many cross-border insurance matters. He is annually selected as a leading lawyer by various publications, including Chambers Global and Asialaw. He regularly speaks on international dispute resolution and insurance, and also sits as an arbitrator.