

Shari L. J. Aberle
Optum Litigation
Edina, Minnesota

Shari L. J. Aberle is Deputy General Counsel Manager at Optum, a leading health services and innovation company that is part of UnitedHealth Group. Shari manages a team of litigation attorneys and paralegals who handle and manage a broad array of health care litigation, investigations, and pre-litigation disputes. Shari is an experienced litigator with over 18 years of experience handling complex litigation. Prior to joining Optum in 2017, Shari was a Trial Partner at Dorsey & Whitney LLP, an international law firm, where she successfully counseled large health, finance, and nonprofit clients on business strategy and risk management, and advocated on their behalf in complex litigation matters, including international disputes, class actions, multi-contract disputes, trademark infringement and unfair competition and other business torts. Before becoming a lawyer, Shari advanced the missions of nonprofit organizations as a Master's level social worker, with a specialization in policy, administration and community development. Shari is active in her community, and currently serves as President of the Board of Directors for Central Minnesota Legal Services, which provides civil legal services to low income individuals and families to help preserve basic needs.
