

Michael F. Aylward
Morrison Mahoney, LLP
Boston, Massachusetts

Michael F. Aylward is a senior partner in the Boston office of Morrison Mahoney, LLP, where he heads the firm's complex insurance claims group. For the past four decades, he has represented insurers in disputes through the United States involving bad faith, intellectual property sexual abuse, toxic torts and environmental liability. He has spoken and written widely on insurance topics and is a contributor to several of the leading insurance treatises. Mr. Aylward has taken a leading role in the insurance bar and is the president-elect of the American College of Coverage Counsel. In the past, he was the chair of the IADC Reinsurance, Excess and Surplus Lines Committee. He is also a member of the American Law Institute and, from 2014 to 2018 served as an appointed Adviser on the ALI's Restatement of Law, Liability Insurance project. He is a graduate of Dartmouth College (B.A. cum laude with Honors in History: 1976) and the Boston College Law School (J.D. cum laude: 1981).