

William S.W. Chang
Crowell & Moring
Washington, DC

William S.W. Chang is an accomplished trial lawyer and former white-collar, federal prosecutor. He represents individuals and companies in criminal- and civil-enforcement actions and related civil litigation. Will's practice focuses on health-care fraud, securities fraud, procurement fraud, the False Claims Act, and the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.

Prior to joining Crowell & Moring, Will served as a trial attorney at the U.S. Department of Justice, Criminal Division, Fraud Section. He was a founding member of the Corporate Healthcare Fraud Strike Force, which investigates the largest and most sophisticated health-care-fraud cases nationwide. Will also served on the Houston Healthcare Fraud Strike Force. In those roles, he led multi-agency, criminal investigations of public and private companies and related individuals. Will led the successful prosecutions of nearly a dozen complex cases, and he tried five jury trials involving health-care fraud, securities fraud, Anti-Kickback Statute violations, Bank Secrecy Act violations, and money laundering.
