

Mary DePaolo Haddad
Helsell Fetterman
Seattle, Washington

Mary Haddad is an AV Preeminent Rated litigator whose goal is to proactively prevent and resolve disputes. When litigation is the only option, Mary vigorously advocates for her clients. She strategically develops solutions to best serve her client's litigation and financial goals, minimizing eDiscovery risks and costs.

Mary has successfully defended numerous multi-million dollar cases including claims against a variety of professionals. She defends professionals. Mary defends employers against claims of discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and wrongful discharge. She litigates personal injury matters ranging from catastrophic injuries to slip and falls.

Mary's practice areas include: Commercial Disputes, Construction Defects, Employment and Labor, Personal Injury, Products Liability and Other Personal Injury, Professional Liability, Trials and Appeals.