

Kimberly Bessiere Martin
Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP
Huntsville, Alabama

Kimberly Bessiere Martin is a partner at Bradley and is the co-chair of the Firm's Life Sciences Litigation Practice Group. She focuses her practice on general litigation with an emphasis on medical device and pharmaceutical products liability litigation. She also has significant experience representing companies with regard to government investigations and False Claims Act litigation. She has tried numerous cases in state and federal court. Most recently, she served as trial counsel defending a nationwide hospice provider in a three month False Claim Act trial brought by the Department of Justice. The trial team's efforts ultimately resulted in a dismissal of the case. Her trial experience also includes defense of personal injury, products liability, commercial litigation, First Amendment, and labor and employment claims.

In the life sciences area, Kim has represented multi-national pharmaceutical and medical device manufacturers in litigation across the country. Most recently, she has been a national team member for sales and marketing issues defending a pharmaceutical company in multi-district litigation throughout the United States. In this role, she had responsibility for discovery and trial preparation related to sales and marketing issues. Kim has also served as counsel for several jurisdictions in the Hormone Replacement Therapy litigation. She also has a wide range of experience in representing clients in general commercial litigation and has been recognized by The Best Lawyers in America® as the Huntsville Commercial Litigation "Lawyer of the Year."
