

Deirdre C. McGlinchey
McGlinchey, Stafford, P.L.L.C.
New Orleans, Louisiana

Deirdre C. McGlinchey is the Practice Group Leader for McGlinchey Stafford's General Litigation Group. Ms. McGlinchey is a trial lawyer who has successfully defended clients in individual claims, class actions, and multi-district litigation, and tried cases before state and federal courts. For more than 20 years, she has defended large manufacturers in products liability cases involving construction, mining, and agricultural equipment; diesel and natural gas engines; industrial turbines; automotive design; marine propulsion systems; toxic torts; and medical devices. While a significant portion of her practice involves litigation in Louisiana, Ms. McGlinchey regularly handles matters in several other states including Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Tennessee, and Texas. Ms. McGlinchey is Chair of McGlinchey Stafford's Diversity Committee and is an active member of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity. She graduated from Bates College and Tulane University Law School, and has been a member of the IADC for over 10 years. Ms. McGlinchey is a member of the Irish Legal 100, and was appointed as Honorary Consul for the Kingdom of the Netherlands in 2017.
