

Harrie Samaras
ADR Office of Harrie Samaras
West Chester, Pennsylvania

Harrie Samaras is an independent arbitrator and mediator focusing her practice on complex commercial cases involving intellectual property and business and technology issues. She is a Fellow of both the College of Commercial Arbitrators and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, and a Distinguished Fellow of the International Academy of Mediators. Harrie has worked as an attorney in the corporate and private sectors and as a staff attorney and law clerk at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. In private practice, Harrie represented clients at the trial and appellate levels in intellectual property cases. She served as Director of Intellectual Property Litigation for a Fortune 100 telecommunications company and as Vice President Intellectual Property, Legal, for a business unit of a multi-national pharmaceutical company.

She is a frequent speaker on ADR topics for national and local bar associations and other professional organizations. Harrie is the editor and an author of the ABA published book, ADR Advocacy, Strategies, and Practice for Intellectual Property and Technology Cases (Second Edition). She has lectured to law, business and graduate students on the subject of ADR. Harrie holds a B.S. and an M.S. degree in the life sciences, a J.D. degree, and an LL.M. degree in Patent and Trade Regulation Law.