

Wade R. Martin

For Wade Martin, there's no better feeling than helping people manage their money in ways they never thought possible. Wade is not your typical financial advisor. Since 1987, he has focused on how to create capital through land preservation or helping clients who have suffered debilitating injuries deal with overwhelming, everyday financial challenges through structured settlements and special needs trusts. Wade has a Bachelor of Science in finance from Susquehanna University.