

Joseph Milcoff

Joe Milcoff is Vice President of Litigation & Risk at FedEx Ground and leads a team of more than 60 legal professionals who defend the FedEx brand and business model, optimize resources, and drive higher margins. His Litigation & Risk team has achieved recognition for driving higher quality and greater efficiency, while reducing overall legal costs, through the 2015 Association of Corporate Counsel Value Challenge Award, and his team was a key contributor to FedEx Ground's recognition by the Pittsburgh Business Times' 2017 Pittsburgh Business Times In House Counsel Department Award. Joe is a two-time recipient of the prestigious FedEx Five Star Award, the highest level of recognition for FedEx employees. He is also a leader of several FedEx initiatives to improve opportunities for veterans, increase diversity within the workforce, and improve legal operations across all FedEx operating companies. Prior to joining FedEx, Joe worked with several law firms in Pennsylvania. Joe is a member of the Board of Directors of the Allegheny County Parks Foundation, serves as its Treasurer and sits on its Finance and Project Committees, and is a member of the Board of Directors for the Pittsburgh Legal Diversity and Inclusion Coalition. He proudly served in the U.S. Army and Army Reserves, and is a graduate of Washington & Lee University (B.A.), Troy University (M.S.), and Penn State's Dickinson School of Law (J.D.). Joe lives in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania with his wife and daughters.
