

Jack W. Selden

Jack Selden has practiced law for 35 years. Previously he served as both the United States Attorney and as an Assistant U. S. Attorney for the Northern District of Alabama. While United States Attorney, he established the Affirmative Civil Enforcement (ACE) Unit of the United States Attorney's office, responsible for investigating and prosecuting all fraud and qui tam actions under the False Claims Act. Jack serves as Chairman of the "DOJ Dialogue Group" committee of the ABA's Criminal Justice Section, which meets quarterly with the Attorney General of the United States and other leadership within the Department of Justice to discuss criminal justice issues. Jack is a past vice chair of the ABA Criminal Justice Section.

In the areas of white collar criminal defense, internal corporate investigations, and corporate compliance, Jack defends clients accused of criminal violations at the federal and state levels. He also has extensive experience in complex civil litigation, including cases arising from federal fraud investigations under the Federal False Claims Act and qui tam whistleblower actions. In March 2016, Jack won a summary judgment on behalf of AseraCare Hospice in a case described by Law360 as "dealing a blow to the U.S. Department of Justice and capping one of the most extraordinary court battles in FCA history."
