Legal Leaders for Diversity

A Statement of Support for Diversity and Inclusion by General Counsel in Canada

We commit to promoting a diverse and inclusive workplace. We value the range of perspectives, ideas and experiences that diversity provides, whether grounded in gender, race, the spectrum of sexual orientation and gender identity, disability, cultural background, religion, economic position or age.

We believe diversity and inclusion create a broader, richer environment that enhances creative thinking, innovation and problem solving. Inclusive organizations attract and retain top talent.

We will therefore encourage greater diversity and inclusion in our own law departments, businesses and co-operate to foster these same values throughout the legal profession and the larger Canadian business community.

We undertake to practice and advance diversity and inclusion by:

- Promoting diversity within our own departments;
- Considering diversity in our hiring and purchasing practices;
- Working with Canadian law firms, law schools and others to advance these values;
- Promoting diversity initiatives at all levels in the legal and business community;
- Measuring the effectiveness of our efforts.

We, as advocates for diversity and inclusion, will demonstrate our commitment through specific actions including one or more of the “Be an Advocate” initiatives.

Legal Leaders for Diversity

Be an Advocate

1. Create an inclusive law department. Be visible and active in your support for diversity and inclusion.
2. Hire from a diverse pool.
3. Take opportunities to educate and coach your team on inclusiveness.
4. Build diversity and inclusiveness plans into employee reviews.
5. Create a mentoring program within your law department where lawyers mentor people from diverse backgrounds. Consider two-way and reverse mentorship programs, and also mentoring outside your organization.
6. Support your organization's leaders in ensuring that they understand, champion and effectively communicate the business case for diversity and inclusion.
7. Consider establishing a Diversity Advisory Committee to guide the organization and find ways to measure success for progress in diversity and inclusiveness.
8. Help develop Diversity Employee Networks and act as an Executive sponsor of one of them.
9. In dealing with external law firms, make sure they know diversity is one of your organization's core values and that you expect to see diversity and inclusiveness on their legal teams.
10. Support vendors and suppliers whose ownership or employee base reflects a commitment to diversity and inclusion. Retain minority or women-owned law firms whenever possible.
11. Speak with other CLOs about diversity and inclusiveness and share best practices, and support diversity and inclusiveness initiatives.
12. Join with law schools to support diversity initiatives.
13. Participate in or host a meeting of Legal Leaders for Diversity.
14. Find and support an organization that promotes diversity and inclusion.
15. Participate in programs which provide opportunities for lawyers and students from diverse backgrounds.

LAW FIRM DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION NETWORK

Signatories to the Statement of Principles

Statement of Principles

The Law Firm Diversity and Inclusion Network (LFDIN) is a group of Canadian law firms who have agreed to work together to promote diversity and encourage a culture of inclusion in our firms and the broader legal profession. Diversity and inclusion are core values of LFDIN members. We believe that valuing and enhancing diversity and inclusion will help us attract and retain the best talent and better serve our clients' needs in an evolving global marketplace. LFDIN members undertake to practice and advance diversity and inclusion by:

- Sharing ideas for the promotion of diversity and inclusion in connection with recruitment, retention and advancement within law firms
- Working with Legal Leaders for Diversity and other general counsel, law departments, business leaders and professional associations in their efforts to advance diversity and inclusion
- Supporting outreach programs in law schools and the broader community
- Promoting thought leadership and constructive dialogue on issues of diversity and inclusion
- Evaluating our efforts
