

Ariel Ye

Ms. Ariel Ye has extensive experience for over 30 years in the field of cross-border commercial dispute resolution. In her career, she has successfully handled a great number of complex foreign-related commercial disputes with significant impacts, especially those involving international arbitration. She has long been recognized as a leading expert in PRC-related dispute resolution in the Asia-Pacific region, as well as one of the most currently respected Chinese lawyers in the field of international arbitration.

Ms. Ye also acts as committee member, board member, etc. of several international arbitration institutions, and is perennially invited to speak in large professional conferences of the international arbitration community.