THE PRESENTATION:

Pick Me, Pick Me! Panel Voir Dire and Jury Selection

This expert panel will detail the jury selection process from pre-trial to venire, voir dire and through to challenges. They will share their insights as to how to engage a panel during voir dire, learning the most information as possible about the jurors during the process as well as establishing a relationship with the jury even before opening statements.

THE PRESENTERS:

Ursula Henninger (uhenninger@kslaw.com)

King & Spalding LLP, Winston Salem, NC

Ursula Henninger is a trial lawyer at King & Spalding. She maintains an active trial practice, trying numerous product liability cases to jury verdict each year. During her more than 20 years trying cases, she has defended a variety of cases including medical malpractice, professional liability, insurance coverage, consumer protection, and RICO. However, the majority of her practice currently focuses on the defense of complex claims of product defect and punitive damages, including those against tobacco manufacturers and pharmaceutical companies. Ms. Henninger has tried cases in federal and state courts throughout the country, including New York, North Carolina, Florida, West Virginia, and Missouri. She has been recognized as Law360 MVP in 2018 for Trials and named "Engle Defense Attorney of the Year (2018)" by Courtroom View Network.

Lee M. Hollis (lhollis@lightfootlaw.com)

Lightfoot, Franklin & White, L.L.C., Birmingham, AL

Lee M. Hollis is a partner at the trial firm of Lightfoot, Franklin & White, LLC in Birmingham, Alabama. His practice focuses on high stakes, complex litigation, involving business disputes, catastrophic injuries, product liability, pharmaceuticals, and medical devices. He has handled cases for clients throughout the Southeast and as far as Washington state. Mr. Hollis is often called to step into cases as they approach trial to serve as trial counsel or appellate counsel. In that role, he has learned the importance of preserving issues for appeal at every step of the case. He earned his B.A. from Washington and Lee University and his J. D. from Vanderbilt University School of Law.

Kenneth A. Murphy (kenneth.murphy@dbr.com)

Drinker Biddle & Reath, Philadelphia, PA

Kenneth A. Murphy is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and has more than 25 years of experience defending product liability and other tort claims, including unfair trade practice and off-label promotion claims, on behalf of pharmaceutical companies and other commercial entities. He has served as Defense Liaison Counsel in numerous drug and medical device litigations reposed in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas Mass Tort Program. He also has first chaired trials of Attorney General-initiated cases alleging fraud and off-label promotion of prescription medicines, in Pennsylvania and South Carolina. Ken has litigated and tried to verdict cases involving claims of professional malpractice, breach of contract, defamation, wrongful termination, premises liability, sexual harassment, and tortious interference with contract in federal and state courts in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and South Carolina. Ken is the immediate past Chair of the Products Liability & Mass Torts Group and a former Managing Partner of the firm.
