President's Message

In the past few decades, Asia has quickly evolved into a dominant economic region which has catapulted its legal market’s significance for all IADC members. The IADC Board recognizes the need to provide greater value to our members in Asia, to further strengthen our membership in Asia, and to enhance the IADC brand in Asia. To that end, the IADC Board has established the IADC Asia Initiative to reach our goals and further secure our reputation as the leading invitation-only legal organization for Asian counsel representing business interests. The IADC has asked former president Tripp Haston to lead the organization in these efforts with essential support from our members in the region and other former Board members and International Committee Chairs.

To launch this initiative, the IADC will be holding a regional meeting in Hong Kong on October 20-21, 2016 during the annual Hong Kong

The IADC is very pleased to introduce a new product that will provide a real and substantial value to members and their firms. The IADC has issued the Third Edition of the Defense Counsel Training Manual which is currently available online in PDF in the Members Only section of the IADC website. The PDF version is free to all members as a benefit of membership. The Defense Counsel Training Manual will also be available for purchase soon in a bound printed version as well as an e-reader version.

The Defense Counsel Training Manual is a compendium of articles by many of our IADC thought leaders with useful information and tips for trial lawyers on every part of handling a case from beginning to end. The book contains more than 500 pages that reflect the collective wisdom and experience of some of the most accomplished civil defense lawyers.

First published in 1989 with the Second Edition to follow in 1994, the Defense Counsel Training Manual became known as “the defense lawyer’s bible.” Requests for the Second Edition continued long after the IADC stopped printing it.

The Third Edition has been more than a year and a half in the making, and we appreciate of all the authors, the Editorial Board, and the staff who put in countless hours to bring this publication back to life and into the hands of the 21st century lawyer.

Recent Event Recaps

The Corporate Counsel Training Academy, a new program for 2016 held with Georgetown Law CLE, took place June 16 and 17 at Georgetown University Law Center in Washington, DC. Seventy-one attendees participated in the program. The conference was designed for lawyers new to the legal corporate department to teach skills and aptitudes they would need to succeed in the corporate environment.

The Insurance Bermuda Triangle Event was held in conjunction with the IADC’s Annual Meeting on July 12. The event addressed the latest insurance issues and programming discussed emerging trends in the industry. The event featured morning programming at The Fairmont Southampton and afternoon programming along with a cocktail reception at XL Catlin. One hundred and sixteen registrants participated in the event.
INTERNATIONAL CORPORATE COUNSEL COLLEGE // 13 - 14 OCTOBER // BRUSSELS, BELGIUM

The International Corporate Counsel College brings together in-house counsel and their law firm counterparts for two days of education and discussion on the latest legal issues affecting global companies. This year’s program will be held October 13 and 14 in Brussels. The programming was developed by Director Paul Lefebvre of Hanotiau & Van Den Berg in Brussels, Belgium, along with an advisory board of in-house counsel representing companies throughout Europe and North America.

The selected program topics this year center on the theme “The Facts: How Do I Process Them? How Do I Store Them? How Do I Discover Them? And Can I Lie About Them?” and topics include cross-border discovery; compliance with data protection laws; analyzing important cases such as Google Spain, Welthimmo, Facebook and Schrems; and data issues in the EU and US.

The location of the meeting is also exceptional. Brussels has a vibrant, multi-cultural atmosphere. The city is full of heritage, including medieval and art nouveau architecture, gastronomy (chocolate, beer, and fine-dining), art, and fashion. While you are in Brussels for the College, we encourage you to walk the cobbled streets and enjoy everything the location has to offer. An optional tour of the city of Ghent is also available on Saturday, October 15 to further explore Belgium.

You will not want to miss this opportunity to see your international friends and colleagues and to network and make new contacts. Registration is open and program details are available on the IADC website at www.iadclaw.org.
International Professional Liability Roundtable - Brand New Program!

The International Professional Liability Roundtable, presented in partnership with PLUS Europe, will be held on November 28. This program will explore various topics of interest to both the insurance market as well as insureds in the financial, professional, and commercial marketplace as well as those who serve their legal needs.

The program will take place simultaneously in London, Paris, and Zurich with videoconferencing connecting the different locations' audiences and speakers. The program will begin at 9:00 a.m. in London/10:00 a.m. in Paris and Zurich and will include six program sessions, a lunch break, and a cocktail reception.

Topics covered will include Class/Group Actions and Settlement Mechanisms; Third Party Litigation Funding; The Panama Papers; Cyber Liability; Securities Litigation and D&O Policies; and The Implications of Brexit.

More information and registration will be available for all locations soon on the IADC website.

IADC Releases Findings From 2016 Inside/Outside Counsel Relationship Survey

Seeking a better understanding of the relationship between lawyers in corporate legal departments and lawyers in law firms, the IADC conducted its Inside/Outside Counsel Relationship Survey for a second time.

The 2016 report-card style survey had inside and outside counsel respondents evaluate themselves in general, communication, and financial categories. Respondents had to also evaluate their counterparts in the same categories. The survey explored their working relationship with a view towards making that relationship more valuable and productive for both parties.

The 2016 survey also looked at the outsourcing of legal work from inside counsel to outside counsel, which is something that was examined in the 2015 survey.

For a PDF copy of the 2016 IADC Inside/Outside Counsel Relationship Survey report, click here.

The 2016 IADC Inside/Outside Counsel Relationship survey has been featured in articles on Law360, General Counsel News, Corporate Counsel, and Indiana Lawyer.
44th Annual Trial Academy Recap

The 44th Annual Trial Academy took place from July 30 to August 5 at Stanford Law School in Palo Alto, California. Eighty-four students and 13 faculty members participated in mock trial exercises. Top-notch demonstrations were given on opening and closing arguments, and direct and cross examinations of expert and lay witnesses. Faculty and students enjoyed learning from each other and getting to know other trial lawyers.

Students were impressed by just how close the week came to creating the atmosphere surrounding a real trial. By day four, everyone began feeling the effects of sleeping very little, performing a specific element of trial each day, and networking in the evening between preparation periods for the next day's exercises. However, the investment of time and energy was definitely paying off and sharpening their trial skills.

The faculty named themselves The MisFritz after their leader Fritz Zimmer of King & Spalding in San Francisco. Students praised the attention they received from their faculty advisor and praised the practical insight they provided. The faculty became mentors as each group of faculty and students bonded into strong units. The affection and respect was obvious during the closing dinner as each faculty member stood with pride and recounted an anecdote from his or her group.

Next year, Lyn Pruitt of Mitchell Williams in Little Rock, Arkansas will serve as the 45th Annual Trial Academy Director. Special recognition goes out to this year's faculty members for the generous donation of their time and expertise: Rebecca Weinstein Bacon, Christopher D. Brown, Mark S. Cheffo, Molly Hughes Cherry, Karen R. Glickstein, Wendy D. May, William C. McGowin, Raymond G. Mullady, Jr., Kenneth A. Murphy, Curtis L. Ott, Richard A. Schneider, Stephen W. Vescovo, and William Curtis Webb. The IADC also thanks its sponsors FTI Consulting and RGL Forensics.
